Jack Butcher Claimant, vs William Zellback and Hartford Timber Products

Notice is hereby given that Jack Butcher of Lincoln county, State of Washington, claims a lien upon 558,284 ft³ of logs, being about 180 logs in quantity, which were cut or manufactured in Franklin county, State of Washington, are marked thus CKS-7M-CKS and are now lying in Franklin county, for labor performed upon and assistance rendered in transporting said logs; that the name of the owner or reputed owner is William Zellback; that Hartford Timber Products employed said Jack Butcher to perform such labor and render such assistance upon the following terms and conditions, to wit:

The said William Zellback agreed to pay the said Jack Butcher for such labor and assistance state; that said contract has been faithfully performed and fully complied with on the part of said Jack Butcher, who performed labor upon and assisted in transporting said logs for the period of 5 days; that said labor and assistance were so performed and rendered upon said 7th Street Timber Products between the 6th day of June 1984 and the 13th day of June 1984 and the rendition of said service was closed on the 13th day of June 1984, and thirty days have not elapsed since that time; that the amount of claimant's demand for said service is $233.13; that no part thereof has been paid except none, and there is now due and remaining unpaid thereon, after deducting all just credits and offsets, the sum of $233.13, in which amount he claims a lien upon said logs chips. The said Jack Butcher also claims a lien on all said logs chips now owned by said William Zellback of said county to secure payment for the work and labor performed in obtaining or securing the said logs, spars, piles or other timber, lumber or shingles herein described.

State of Washington, county of Lincoln ss.

Jack Butcher being first duly sworn, on oath says that he is claimant named in the foregoing claim, has heard the same read, knows the contents thereof, and believe the same to be true.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this day 2nd of July, 1984.
