under this contract as of the date of the judgment and any sums which have been advanced by seller as of said date, pursuant to the provisions of this contract, together with interest or all of said amounts at the default rate, from the date each such amount was advanced or due, as the case may be, to and including the date of collection;

B. Forfeiture and Repossession: The seller may cancel and render void all rights, titles and interests of the purchaser and its successors in this contract and in the property (including all of purchaser's then existing rights, interest and estates therein and timber crops and improvements thereon), by giving a Notice of Intent to Porfeit pursuant to RCW 61.30.040-070, and said cancellation and forfeiture shall become effective if the default therein specified has not been fully cured within 90 days thereafter and the seller records a Declaration of Forfeiture pursuant to RCW 61,30.040-070. Upon the forfeiture of this contract, the seller may retain all payments made hereunder by the purchaser and may take possession of the property ten days following the date this contract is forfeited and summarily eject the purchaser and any person or persons having possession of the said property by, through or under the purchaser, who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture. In the event the purchaser or any person or persons claiming by, through or under the purchaser, who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture remain in possession of the property more than ten days after such forfeiture, the purchaser, or such person or persons shall be deemed tenants at will of the seller and the seller shall be entitled to institute an action for summary possession of the property and may recover from the purchaser, or such person or persons in any such proceedings, the fair rental value of the property for the use thereof from and after the date of forfeiture, plus costs, including seller's reasonable attorneys fees.

PURCHASER'S PEMFDIES:

In the event the seller should default in any of its obligations under its contract and such default continues for fifteen days after the purchaser gives the seller written notice specifying the nature thereof and the acts required to cure the same, the purchaser shall have the right to specifically enforce this contract, institute suit for its damages caused by such default, or pursue any other remedy which may be available to the purchaser at law or in equity.

NOTICES: Any notices required or permitted by law or under this contract shall be in writing and shall be sent by first class, certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, with postage prepaid, to the parties addresses. Either proty may change such address for notice. All notices which are so addressed and paid for shall be deemed effective two business days following the deposit thereof in the US Mail, irrespective of actual receipt of such notice by the addressee.

COSTS AND ATTORNEYS FEES:

If either party shall be in default under this contract, the non-defaulting party shall have the right, at the defaulting parties' expense, to retain an attorney or collection agency to make any demand, enforce any remedy or otherwise protect and enforce its rights under this contract. The defaulting party hereby promises to pay all costs and expenses so incurred by the non-defaulting party, including, without limitation, arbitration and court costs, collection agency charges, notice expenses, title search expenses and reasonable attorneys fees (with or without arbitration or litigation) and the failure of the defaulting party to promptly pay the same shall, in itself, constitute a further and additional default. In the event either party hereto institutes any action (including arbitration) to enforce the terms and provisions of this contract, the prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to reimbursement by the losing party for its court costs and reasonable attorneys fees, including such costs and fees that are incurred on appeal. All reimbursements required by this paragraph shall be due and payable on demand, may be off-set against any sum owed to the parties so liable in order of maturity and shall bear interest at the default rate or from the date of demand, to and including the date of collection, or the due date of any sum against which the same is off-set.

TIME OF PERFORMANCE:

Time is specifically declared to be of the essence of this contract and of all acts required to be done and performed by the parties hereto, including but not limited to the property tender of each of the sums required by the terms hereof to be paid.

SUCCESSORS:

Subject to the restrictions contained herein, the rights and obligations of the seller and the purchaser shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon their respective estates, heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, provided, however, no person to whom this contract is pledged or assigned, for security purposes, by either party hereto, shall, in the absence of an express written assumption by such party, be liable for the performance of any covenant herein. Any assignee of any interest in this contract or any holder of any interest in the property shall have the right to cure any default in the manner permitted and between the time periods required of the defaulting party but except as otherwise required by law, no notices, in addition to those provided for in this contract, need be given.
