

WASHINGTON
COMMUNITY PROPERTY AGREEMENT

This agreement is made and entered into this 12th day of AUGUST, 1987, between JOHN R. GLUR and JEANNE R. GLUR, who agree as follows:

1. Intent. The parties are husband and wife who are residents of the State of Oregon and who own real property in the State of Washington. This agreement is made pursuant to the statutes of the State of Washington for the purpose of establishing the status of all Washington property now owned or hereafter acquired by the parties, both during their lifetimes and upon the death of the party first to die.

2. Consideration. The consideration given by each party consists of the promises of each to the other and also the love and affection that each bears to the other.

3. Washington Property. "Washington property" means and this agreement applies to all real or other property which has a legal situs in the State of Washington and which is presently owned by either or both parties, or which either or both parties may acquire after the date of the agreement. "Washington property" includes the property presently owned by the parties and described in exhibit "A". This agreement does not apply to any property now owned or hereafter acquired by either or both parties and having a legal situs in the State of Oregon or in any jurisdiction other than the State of Washington.

4. Community Property. All Washington property is hereby declared community property owned entirely by the community composed of the two parties to this agreement.

5. Death of Spouse. Upon the death of the party first to die, title to all Washington property shall immediately vest in the surviving party in fee simple.

6. Amendment and Revocation. This agreement may not be amended, altered, revoked or cancelled by execution of a subsequent will by either party. It may be amended or revoked only by execution by the parties of a written instrument of revocation or amendment of equal formality to this agreement.
