ASSIGNMENT OF CONTRACT:

The purchaser shall not assign any interest under this contract without the express written consent of the seller, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

DUE ON SALE:

WARRANTIES:

The purchaser agrees that full inspection of said real estate has been made and neither the seller nor his assigns shall be held to any covenant respecting the conditions of any improvements thereon, nor shall the purchaser or seller or the assigns of either be held to any covenant or agreement for alterations, improvements or repairs unless the covenant or agreement relied on is contained herein or is in writing and attached to and made a part of this contract.

DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION:

The purchaser assumes all hazards of damage to or destruction of any improvements now on said real estate or hereafter placed thereon and of the taking of said real estate or any part thereof for public use; and agrees that no such damage, destruction or taking shall constitute a failure of consideration. In case any part of said real estate is taken for public use, the portion of the condemnation award remaining after the payment of reasonable expenses of procuring the same shall be paid to the seller and applied as payment on the purchase price herein unless the seller elects to allow the purchaser to apply all or a portion of such condemnation award to the rebuilding or restoration of any improvements damaged by such taking. In case of damage or destruction from a peril insured against, the proceeds of such insurance remaining after payment of the reasonable expense of procuring the same, shall be devoted to the restoration or rebuilding of such improvements within a reasonable time unless purchaser elects that said proceeds shall be paid to the seller for application on the purchase price herein.

TITLE INSURANCE:

The seller has delivered or agrees to deliver within 15 days of the date of closing a Purchasers Policy of Title Insurance in standard form or a commitment therefor, issued by a registered Title Insurance Company insuring the purchaser to the full amount of said purchase price against loss or damage by reason of defect in seller's title to said real estate as of the date of closing and containing no exceptions other than the following:

A. Printed general exceptions appearing in said policy form.

B. Lien or encumbrances which by the terms of this contract purchaser is to assume or as to which the conveyance hereunder is to be made subject; and,

C. Any existing contract or contracts under which seller is purchasing said real estate and any mortgage or other obligation which seller, by this contract, agrees to pay. None of which for the purpose of this paragraph shall be deemed defects in seller's title.

EXISTING ENCUMBRANCES:

If seller's title to said real estate is subject to an existing contract or contracts under which seller is purchasing said real estate, or any mortgage or other obligation which seller is to pay, seller agrees to make such payments in accordance with the terms thereof, and upon default, the purchaser shall have the right to make any payments necessary to remove the default, and any payments so made shall be applied to the payments next falling due the seller under this contract.

DELIVERY OF DEED:

The seller agrees upon receiving full payment of the purchase price and interest in the manner above specified, to execute and deliver to purchaser a Statutory Warranty Fulfillment Deed to said real estate, excepting any part thereof hereafter taken for public use free of encumbrances except any that may attach after date of closing to any person other than the seller and subject to the following: Easements, covenants and restrictions of record.

POSSESSION:

Unless a different date is provided for herein, the purchaser shall be entitled to possession of said real estate on date of closing and to retain possession so long as purchaser is not in default hereunder. The purchaser covenants to keep the buildings and other improvements on said real estate in good repair and not to permit waste and not to use or permit the use of the real estate for any illegal purpose. The purchaser covenants to pay all service, installation or construction charges for water, sewer, electricity, garbage or other utility services furnished to said real estate after the date purchaser is entitled to possession.

D. Permits the property, or any part thereof, or its interest therein to be attached or in any manner restrained or impounded by process of any court, or,

E. Conveys the property, or a portion thereof without the prior written consent required herein of the seller.

SELLER'S REMEDIES:

In the event the purchaser is in default under this contract, the seller may, at its election, take the following courses of action:

A. Suit for delinquencies: The seller may institute suit for any installment amounts or other sums due and payable under this contract as of the date of the judgment and any sums which have been advanced by seller as of said date, pursuant to the provisions of this contract, together with interest on all of said amounts at the default rate, from the date each such amount was advanced or due, as the case may be, to and including the date of collection;

B. Forfeiture and Repossession: The seller may cancel and render void all rights, titles and interests of the purchaser and its successors in this contract and in the property (including all of purchaser's then existing rights, interest and estates therein and timber crops and improvements

Upon the forfeiture of this contract, the seller may retain all payments made hereunder by the purchaser and may take possession of the property ten days following the date this contract is forfeited and summarily eject the purchaser and any person or persons having possession of the said property by, through or under the purchaser, who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture. In the event the purchaser or any person or persons claiming by, through or under the purchaser, who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture remain in possession of the property more than ten days after such forfeiture, the purchaser, or such person or persons shall be deemed tenants at will of the seller and the seller shall be entitled to institute an action for summary possession of the property and may recover from the purchaser, or such person or persons in any such proceedings, the fair rental value of the property for the use thereof from and after the date of forfeiture, plus costs, including seller's reasonable attorneys fees.

PURCHASER'S REMEDIES:

In the event the seller should default in any of its obligations under its contract and such default continues for fifteen days after the purchaser gives the seller written notice specifying the nature thereof and the acts required to cure the same, the purchaser shall have the right to specifically enforce this contract, institute suit for its damages caused by such default, or pursue any other remedy which may be available to the purchaser at law or in equity.
