The purchaser assumes and agrees to pay before delinquency all taxes and assessments that may as between grantor and grantee hereafter become a lien on said real estate and purchaser shall provide proof of payment of such taxes to the seller annually.

INSURANCE:

WARRANTIES:

The purchaser agrees that full inspection of said real estate has been made and neither the seller nor his assigns shall be held to any covenant respecting the conditions of any improvements thereon, nor shall the purchaser or seller or the assigns of either be held to any covenant or agreement for alterations, improvements or repairs unless the covenant or agreement relied on is contained herein or is in writing and attached to and made a part of this contract.

EXISTING ENCUMBRANCES:

If seller's title to said real estate is subject to an existing contract or contracts under which seller is purchasing said real estate, or any mortgage or other obligation which seller is to pay, seller agrees to make such payments in accordance with the terms thereof, and upon default, the purchaser shall have the right to make any payments necessary to remove the default, and any payments so made shall be applied to the payments next falling due the seller under this contract.

The purchaser covenants to keep the buildings and other improvements on said real estate in good repair and not to permit waste and not to use or permit the use of the real estate for any illegal purpose. The purchaser shall be in default under this contract if it:

A. Fails to observe or perform any term, covenant or condition herein set forth or those of any prior encumbrances, or,

B. Fails or neglects to make any payment of principal or interest or any other amount required to be so discharged by the purchaser, precisely when obligated to do so, or,

C. Becomes or is declared insolvent or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or files any debtors petition or any petition is filed against it under any bankruptcy, wage earners reorganization or similar act, or,

D. Permits the property, or any part thereof, or its interest therein to be attached or in any manner restrained or impounded by process of any court, or,

E. Conveys the property, or a portion thereof without the prior written consent required herein of the seller.

SELLER'S REMEDIES:

In the event the purchaser is in default under this contract, the seller may, at its election, take the following courses of action;

B. Forfeiture and Repossession: The seller may cancel and render void all rights, titles and interests of the purchaser and its successors in this contract and in the property (including all of purchaser's then existing rights, interest and estates therein and timber crops and improvements thereon), by giving a Notice of Intent to Forfeit pursuant to RCW 61.30.040-070, and said cancellation and forfeiture shall become effective if the default therein specified has not been fully cured within 90 days thereafter and the seller records a Declaration of Forfeiture pursuant to RCW 61.30.040-070. Upon the forfeiture of this contract, the seller may retain all payments made hereunder by the purchaser and may take possession of the property ten days following the date this contract is forfeited and summarily eject the purchaser and any person or persons having possession of the said property by, through or under the purchaser, who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture. In the event the purchaser or any person or persons claiming by, through or under the purchaser, who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture remain in possession of the property more than ten days after such forfeiture, the purchaser, or such person or persons shall be deemed tenants at will of the seller and the seller shall be entitled to institute an action for summary possession of the property and may recover from the purchaser, or such person or persons in any such proceedings, the fair rental value of the property for the use thereof from and after the date of forfeiture, plus costs, including seller's reasonable attorneys fees.

PURCHASER'S REMEDIES:

In the event the seller should default in any of its obligations under its contract and such default continues for fifteen days after the purchaser gives the seller written notice specifying the nature thereof and the acts required to cure the same, the purchaser shall have the right to specifically enforce this contract, institute suit for its damages caused by such default, or pursue any other remedy which may be available to the purchaser at law or in equity.

NOTICES: Any notices required or permitted by law or under this contract shall be in writing and shall be sent by first class, certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, with postage prepaid, to the parties addresses. Either party may change such address for notice. All notices which are so addressed and paid for shall be deemed effective two business days following the deposit thereof in the US Mail, irrespective of actual receipt of such notice by the addressee.

COSTS AND ATTORNEYS FEES:

If either party shall be in default under this contract, the non-defaulting party shall have the right, at the defaulting parties' expense, to retain an attorney or collection agency to make any demand, enforce any remedy or otherwise protect and enforce its rights under this contract. The defaulting party hereby promises to pay all costs and expenses so incurred by the non-defaulting party, including, without limitation, arbitration and court costs, collection agency charges, notice expenses, title search expenses and reasonable attorneys fees (with or without arbitration or litigation) and the failure of the defaulting party to promptly pay the same shall, in itself, constitute a further and additional default. In the event either party hereto institutes any action (including arbitration) to enforce the terms and provisions of this contract, the prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to reimbursement by the losing party for its court costs and reasonable attorneys fees, including such costs and fees that are incurred on appeal. All reimbursements required by this paragraph shall be due and payable on demand, may be off-set against any sum owed to the parties so liable in order of maturity and shall bear interest at the default rate or from the date of demand, to and including the date of collection, or the due date of any sum against which the same is off-set.

TIME OF PERFORMANCE:

Time is specifically declared to be of the essence of this contract and of all acts required to be done and performed by the parties hereto, including but not limited to the property tender of each of the sums required by the terms hereof to be paid.

SUCCESSORS:

Subject to the restrictions contained herein, the rights and obligations of the seller and the purchaser shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon their respective estates, heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, provided, however, no person to whom this contract is pledged or assigned, for security purposes, by either party hereto, shall, in the absence of an express written assumption by such party, be liable for the performance of any covenant herein. Any assignee of any interest in this contract or any holder of any interest in the property shall have the right to cure any default in the manner permitted and between the time periods required of the defaulting party but except as otherwise required by law, no notices, in addition to those provided for in this contract, need be given.

This contract contains the entire agreement of the parties hereto and, except for any agreements or warranties otherwise stated in writing to survive the execution and delivery of this contract, supercedes all of their previous understandings and agreements, written and oral, with respect to this transaction. Neither the seller nor the purchaser shall be liable to the other for any representations made by any person concerning the property or regarding the terms of this contract, except to the extent that the same are expressed in this instrument.

This contract may be amended only upon written instrument executed by the purchaser and the seller subsequent to the date hereof.
