(3) The Purchaser agrees that full inspection of said real estate has been made. The Seller represents no authority or directive has been given to change the condition of any improvements thereon. The Purchaser or Seller or the assigns of either shall not be held to any covenant or agreement for alterations, improvements or repairs unless the covenant or agreement relied on is contained herein or is in writing and attached to and made a part of this contract.

(4) The Purchaser assumes all hazards of damage to or destruction of any improvements now on said real estate or hereafter placed thereon, and of the taking of said real estate or any part thereof for public use; and agrees that no such damage, destruction or taking shall constitute a failure of consideration. In case any part of said real estate is taken for public use, the portion of the condemnation award remaining after payment of reasonable expenses of procuring the same shall be paid to the Seller and applied as payment on the purchase price herein unless the Seller elects to allow the purchaser to apply all or a portion of such condemnation award to the rebuilding or restoration of any improvements damaged by such taking. In case of damage or destruction from a peril insured against, the proceeds of such insurance remaining after payment of the reasonable expense of procuring the same shall be devoted to the restoration or rebuilding of such improvements within a reasonable time, unless Purchaser elects that said proceeds shall be paid to the Seller for application on the purchase price herein.

(11) Time is of the essence of this contract, and it is agreed that in case the Purchaser shall fail to comply with or perform any condition or agreement hereof or to make any payment required hereunder promptly at the time and in the manner herein required, the Seller may elect to declare all the Purchaser's rights hereunder terminated, and upon his doing so, all payments made by the Purchaser hereunder and all improvements placed upon the real estate shall be forfeited to the Seller as liquidated damages, and the Seller shall have right to re-enter and take possession of the real estate; and no waiver by the Seller of any default on the part of the Purchaser shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default. Seller may also elect to enforce the terms hereof by a suit for specific performance.

Service upon Purchaser of all demands, notices, or other papers with respect to forfeiture and termination of Purchaser's rights may be made by the United States Mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, directed to the Purchaser at his address last known to the Seller.

(12) Upon Seller's election to bring suit or action to enforce any covenant of this contract, including suit to collect any payment required hereunder, the Purchaser agrees to pay a reasonable sum as attorneys' fees and all costs and expenses in connection with such suit or action, and also the reasonable cost of searching records to determine the condition of title at the date such suit or action is commenced, which sums shall be included in any judgment or decree entered in such suit or action.
