Section 6. ADVANCES: In case the Buyer fails to make any payments herein provided or to maintain insurance, as herein required, the Seller may make such payment or effect such insurance, and any amounts so paid by the Seller, together with interest at the rate of ten (10%) percent per annum thereon from date of payment until repaid, shall be repayable by Buyer on Seller's demand, all without prejudice to any other right the Seller might have by reason of such default.

Section 7. SELLER'S COVENANTS: The Sellers agree that when the Buyer shall have paid the balance of the purchase price and all interest due and shall have repaid any and all payments or advancements made by the Seller to or for the benefit of the Buyer or for the protection of the property or of this contract, together with interest thereon, and shall have, in all other respects, fully complied with all of the terms and conditions of this contract to make, execute and deliver to the Buyer or assigns a good and sufficient Warranty Deed, conveying title to said premises free and clear of all encumbrances, except those of record mentioned herein, and it is understood and agreed that the warranties of said deed shall, after the date of this contract, apply only to the acts of the Seller and shall not include any taxes or assessments which may have become a lien after the date of this contract. Seller agrees to furnish to Buyer a policy of title insurance insuring his legal title to said real estate within ninety (90) days of the date of this agreement. Upon delivery of said policy to Buyer, Seller shall have no further obligation to insure Buyer's title to said premises.

Section 8. CHANGE IN TITLE OR OCCUPANCY: The rights to purchase granted by this Real Estate Contract are personal to the Buyer, and Seller's reliance upon Buyer's ability and integrity is a part of the condition for this contract. Neither this contract, nor any interest therein, nor the possession of the property may be assigned or transferred by the Buyer, nor shall Buyer make or enter into any contract for the sale of the property or any interest therein, without the prior written consent of the Seller. Any attempt at assignment and transfer by Buyer in violation of the foregoing provisions may, at Seller's option, be deemed a default by Buyer and Seller may declare the remaining contract balance, accrued interest and other sums owing by the Buyer to Seller hereunder, immediately due and payable.

Section 9. FORFEITURE: Time is of the essence of this contract and if the Buyer shall fail, refuse or neglect to pay either or any of the installments or interest or any other payment due, or shall fail to keep and/or perform any of the covenants and agreements herein contained on the part of the Buyer to be performed, then the Seller may cancel and render void all rights, titles and interests of the Buyer and his successors in this contract and in the real estate which is the subject of this contract by giving a Notice of Intent to Forfeit pursuant to RCW 61.30.040-070, and said cancellation and forfeiture shall become effective if the default therein specified has not been fully cured within ninety (90) days thereafter and the Seller record a Declaration of Forfeiture pursuant to RCW 61.30.040-070. Upon the forfeiture of this contract, the Seller may retain all payments made hereunder by the Buyer and may take possession of the property ten (10) days following the date this contract is forfeited and summarily eject the Buyer and any person or persons having possession of the said property by, through or under the Buyer who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture. In the event the Buyer or any person or persons claiming by, through or under the Buyer who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture remain in possession of the property more than ten (10) days after such forfeiture, the Buyer, or such person or persons, shall be deemed tenants at will of the Seller and the Seller shall be entitled to institute an action for summary possession of the property, and may recover from the Buyer or such person or persons in any such proceedings the fair rental value of the property for the use thereof from and after the date of forfeiture, plus costs, including Seller's reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 10. OTHER REMEDIES: As an alternative to declaring a forfeiture for any such default, Seller may, at their election, bring an action or actions, on any intermediate overdue installment, or on any payment or payments made by the Seller and repayable by the Buyer, it being stipulated and agreed that the covenant to pay intermediate installments or to repay items repayable by the Buyer, is independent of the covenant to make a deed.

Or Seller may, in the event of such default, at their election declare the entire unpaid balance immediately due and payable and bring such action or actions as they may deem appropriate to effect collection thereof.

It is agreed that any such action is an action arising on contract for the recovery of money only, as if the promise to pay had been expressed in a different instrument, and that no such action shall constitute an election not to proceed otherwise as to any subsequent default.

Section 11. COURT COSTS AND ATTORNEY'S FEES:

(a) If this contract or any obligation contained in it is referred to any attorney for collection, forfeiture or realization, Buyer agrees to pay to Seller a reasonable attorney's fee, (including fees incurred with or without legal suit), expenses of title search and all other legal expenses. If any such fee is not paid within thirty (30) days after Buyer is billed, said amount shall be added to the balance of the unpaid purchase price then due.

(b) In the event litigation arises out of this contract, the losing party agrees to pay the prevailing party a reasonable attorney's fee, together with all costs and expenses incurred in connection with such action, including the reasonable cost of searching the records to determine the condition of title at the time suit is commenced.

Section 12. REPRESENTATIONS: Buyer has inspected the property sold herein and has found the same to be to his satisfaction and he agrees that no promises, representations, statements or warranties, expressed or implied, as to any improvements thereon or repairs thereto, or as to the location of boundary lines, shall be binding upon the Seller unless expressly contained herein.

Section 13. WAIVER: No assent, expressed or implied, by Seller to any breach of Buyer's covenant or agreement shall be deemed or taken to be a waiver of any succeeding breach of the same or other covenants.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this agreement to be executed in duplicate this 2nd day of August, 1991.
