This Indenture, made the 23rd day of October, A. D. 1899, between P. J. Mc Gowan & Son, Incorporated, a corporation created under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Washington, of Pacific County, in said State, the party of the first part, and H. Sarns, of Multnomah County, Oregon, the party of the second part, Witnesseth:

Whereas the said party of the first part is to advance certain moneys and supplies to said second party to be used in repairing, equipping, maintaining and operating his certain fish wheels and fishing appliances in Oregon and Washington, and a contract has been entered into between said parties in respect thereto.

Now, therefore, in consideration of said moneys and supplies to be advanced as aforesaid, the said second party does by these presents bargain, sell and assign unto the said first party all his right, title and interest in and to a certain lease made March 30, 1894, between S. B. Suss and said H. Sarns, and recorded in the office of the County Auditor of Skamania County, Washington, in Book of Lease, on Page 83; said assignment to continue in force for the period of five years as in said contract provided and set forth.

But this assignment is nevertheless made upon this express condition, that if the said second party, his heirs and assigns shall well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, unto the said first party, its successors and assigns, the sum of $1000 in accordance with a certain mortgage heretofore made in favor of said party of the first part, and all money additional which are and may be furnished under a certain contract made between the parties hereto relating to the delivery of fish to said party of the first part, this indenture shall be void, and of no effect, it being for the purpose of securing payment of said moneys as aforesaid and for the delivery of fish for the period of five years as specified in the contract hereinbefore referred to.

And it is expressly covenanted and agreed between the parties hereto that the party of the second part shall enjoy all the privileges and profits, and work, operate and manage the wheels and other fishing appliances and real and personal property during the said period of five years, and continue in the full possession thereof, as though this assignment had never been made.

But in the event of the failure of the said party of the second part to work, operate and manage said wheels and property to the mutual advantage of the parties hereto as in the contract set forth, and deliver fish as therein provided, all the right of the said second party under this lease shall be forfeited to the said first party, and it may well, enjoy and operate the same for the
