

C. B. Williams

vs

Tatum & Rawson.

Tatum & Rawson, Portland, Oregon, as Vendors.

C. B. Williams, Stevedore, Washington, as Vendee.

Conditional Sale of Mundy Patent Friction Engine -

1st Said property to remain the absolute property of said Vendors until the full payment of the following promissory notes are paid, to-wit:

Eight notes dated at Portland, Oregon, Dec. 8, 1899, for One Hundred ($100.⁰⁰) Dollars each payable at the First National Bank the first of each month commencing from February 1, 1900, all bearing interest from date at the rate of ten per cent, per annum, payable to order of said vendors.

One note for One Hundred and Fifty ($150.⁰⁰) Dollars dated at Portland, Oregon Dec. 8, 1899, and made payable to order of said Vendors at First National Bank of Portland on Oct 1, 1900 bearing interest from date thereof at the rate of ten per cent, per annum.

2nd Upon payment of the above mentioned notes according to the terms thereof, the title of the said property shall be vested in said Vendee.

3rd Said property and every part thereof shall be at the risk of Vendee and all loss and damage shall be borne by said Vendee.

Said property is described as follows:

One 7/4 x 10 Double Cylinder Double Drum Mundy Friction Drifting Engine and Boiler.

C. B. Williams

Tatum & Rawson.

Dated Portland, Oregon, Dec. 8, 1899.

Filed for record by Tatum & Rawson 11th January 1900 at 9. A. M.

J. N. Kabe

C. Auditor.

✓