

upon the payment to me, within said time, of the sum of Twenty Thousand (<20,000.00> Dollars, together with four per cent. interest thereon from this date, interest payable annually. It is expressly covenanted and agreed that until fully paid for, the title to the said property and the whole thereof is to remain in me.

In case the said parties shall fail to make any of the payments conditional herein, or should at any time refuse to purchase said property, all payments made by them thereon shall be absolutely forfeited to the said first parties. This agreement is personal to the said Finley Morrison and William J. Morrison, and shall not be assigned by them without my written consent.

Witness our hands and seals this 15th day of April, 1905.
