

LIEN NOTICE

ERIC BLACKWELL, Claimant vs MENASHA CORPORATION, J & D TIMBER
FALLING, AND WASHINGTON STATE DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES

Notice is hereby given that Eric Blackwell of Skamania County, State of Washington, claims a lien upon a quantity of timber being about 2,300,000 feet in quantity which was cut in Skamania County, State of Washington and is now lying in property owned by the Department of Natural Resources, State of Washington, approximately eighteen (18) miles north of the town of Carson in a timber sale denominated as "Huckleberry Sale." This claim is made for labor performed upon said timber; rendered in cutting, falling, and bucking said timber (including furnishing of materials), all having a value of THREE THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED THIRTY SEVEN DOLLARS AND 34/100 ($3,237.34). Additionally, the lien claimant makes claim for interest at the highest legal rate allowed by the State of Washington together with attorneys' fees in the amount of not less than $750.00, all of which the claimant will ask to be trebled as exemplary damages for outrageous conduct on the part of MENASHA CORPORATION. The owner, or reputed owner, of subject logs is MENASHA CORPORATION. MENASHA CORPORATION employed J & D TIMBER CUTTING COMPANY to do subject logging, and MENASHA CORPORATION, through J & D TIMBER CUTTING COMPANY, employed this claimant to perform such labor and render such assistance as he has rendered. MENASHA CORPORATION and J & D TIMBER CUTTING COMPANY agreed to pay the claimant at the rate of FIFTEEN DOLLARS AND NO/100 ($15.00) per hour together with repayment of his expenses and the contract has been faithfully performed and fully complied with on the part of the claimant who commenced the contract on or before the 27th day of July, 1988 and last performed services on said contract on the 19th day of August, 1988. Sixty days have not elapsed since the performance of the last regular services on said contract, demand has been made on numerous occasions to all of the above named respondents, and payment has been acknowledged as due and owing, but payment has not been made. Claimant now claims a lien upon said timber and all of its product. Claimant also claims a lien on any and all property, including monies, held in this county or in this state by the above named respondents.

DATED this 11 day of October, 1988.

ERIC BLACKWELL, By his Attorney
In Fact JOHN THOMAS DAY

STATE OF WASHINGTON)
) ss
County of Skamania)

JOHN THOMAS DAY, being first duly sworn on oath, states that:

He is attorney for claimant in the foregoing claim, has obtained all of the information from the claimant and the claimant has affirmed that all of the facts and contents set forth above are true. The undersigned attorney has investigated the facts of this lien claim and other similarly situated lien claims against MENASHA CORPORATION and believes that the foregoing allegations are true in all material respects.

~~JOHN THOMAS DAY~~

FILED FOR RECORD
SKAMANIA CO. WASH
BY John Doe
ST. CLAY 401
STEVENSON 75448
Oct 11 12 11 PM '33
SUBSCRIBED
E. Macfarlane
AUDITOR
GARY M. CLSON

SUBSCRIBED AND SWORN to before me this 11 day of October,

NOTARY PUBLIC for Washington residing at Stevenson. My commission expires 4/10/90.

Registered S
Indexed, Vir S
F
Wanted