I. The Grantor and the United States agree that any ambiguities regarding the terms and conditions of this easement shall be resolved in a manner which best effects the overall conservation and public purpose of Public Law 99-663.

J. The United States shall have the right to make surveys, plats, take photographs and prepare such other documentation as may be necessary or desirable to administer the provisions of this instrument. Any such map, plat or other suitable document may be recorded at the discretion of the Forest Service in the land records of the respective county wherein the property is located.

K. The provisions of this easement are enforceable in law or equity by the United States, its successors or assigns.

L. The term "Grantor" or "Grantors" shall apply to the present grantors, their heirs, successors or assigns.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD, the herein described estate in land and rights unto the United States, its successors or assigns forever. The rights conveyed herein shall run with the land and constitute a perpetual servitude thereon. The Grantors covenant that they and their successors in interest will warrant and defend unto the United States the quiet and peaceable use and enjoyment of this land against all claims and demands.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Grantors have hereunto set their hand and seal on the day and year first above written.
