SPOUSES' DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY

The undersigned spouses, each as principals, domiciled and residing in the State of Washington, reciprocally and individually hereby revoke any and all previously executed powers of attorney which are inconsistent with this power of attorney and designate the following named person or persons in the alternative as attorney-in-fact to act for either spouse.

1. DESIGNATION. My spouse, if living, able and willing to serve, is designated as attorney-in-fact, effective as provided in Paragraph 4. If for any reason, my spouse is unable or unwilling to act as attorney-in-fact, BETTY J. EVANS is designated as alternate attorney-in-fact for the Principal.

2. POWERS.

a. General. The attorney-in-fact, as fiduciary, shall have all powers of an absolute owner over the assets and liabilities of the Principal, whether located within or without of the State of Washington; provided, however, the attorney-in-fact shall not have the power to make gifts of the Principal's property, nor to revoke or change any testamentary documents previously executed by the Principal.

b. Securities. As assurance to transfer agents, and not by way of limitation, this power includes the power to purchase or sell any stocks, bonds or other securities or any interest therein and in that regard to endorse any stock certificates, stock powers, affidavits of domicile or other documents necessary to effect the transfer of such property or interest, to take possession of any stock certificate, bond or other security or register same in the name of any stock broker or stock brokerage account.

c. Health Care Decisions. The attorney-in-fact shall have all powers to make medical and health care decisions on behalf of the Principal, including the power to withhold or withdraw treatment, grant informed consent or refuse treatment pursuant to RCW 7.70.065, and to exercise any and all other powers necessary or appropriate to provide for health care and treatment of the Principal. This Power of Attorney shall include the power to approve and direct the withholding of life sustaining procedures including, but not limited to, utilizing mechanical or other artificial means including cardiopulmonary resuscitation, defibrillation, the use of a respirator, intubation, the insertion of a naso-gastric tube, and intravenous nutrition and hydration. Pursuant to RCW 11.94.010 and RCW 11.92.040, the attorney-in-fact may not, without Court approval on behalf of the Principal, consent to: therapy or other procedures which induce convulsion; surgery solely for the purpose of psychosurgery; amputation; other psychiatric or mental health procedures which are intrusive on the person's body integrity or physical freedom of movement. It is the intent of both spouses that this Power of Attorney and the Directive be interpreted to grant the broadest scope of power to make health care decisions and refuse treatment permitted under the laws of the State of Washington. In the event either of the spouses is in a persistent vegetative state, it is his or her desire that further medical treatment be refused.

d. Real or Personal Property: The attorney-in-fact shall have all powers to sell, convey, exchange or otherwise transfer or encumber any real or personal property of the Principal.

3. PURPOSES. The attorney-in-fact shall have full powers to provide for the support, maintenance, health, emergencies and necessities of the other spouse.

4. EFFECTIVENESS AND DURATION. This Durable Power of Attorney becomes effective upon execution and shall remain in effect to the extent permitted by Chapter 11.94, RCW or until revoked or terminated under Paragraphs 5 and 6, notwithstanding any uncertainty as to whether the undersigned is dead or alive. This Power of Attorney shall not be affected by disability of the Principal.

5. REVOCATION. This power of attorney may be revoked, suspended or terminated in writing by either spouse with written notice to the other spouse and by recording the written instrument of revocation in the office of the recorder or auditor of Skamania County, Washington.

6. TERMINATION.

a. By Appointment of Guardian. The appointment of a guardian of the estate of the Principal vests in the guardian with court approval, the power to revoke, suspend or terminate this power of attorney. The appointment of a guardian of the person only does not empower the guardian to revoke, suspend or terminate this power of attorney. In the event it becomes necessary to appoint a guardian of my person or estate, it is my desire that the above person or persons be appointed.

b. By Death of Principal. The death of the Principal shall be deemed to revoke this power of attorney upon actual knowledge or actual notice being received by the attorney-in-fact.

7. ACCOUNTING. The attorney-in-fact shall be required to account to the Principal and to any successor attorney-in-fact or subsequently appointed personal representative.

8. RELIANCE. Any person dealing with the attorney-in-fact shall be entitled to rely upon this power of attorney so long as such person has received no actual knowledge or actual notice of any revocation, suspension or termination of the power of attorney by death or otherwise. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, shall be binding on the heirs, devisees, legatees or personal representatives of the Principal.

9. INDEMNITY. The estate of the Principal shall hold harmless and indemnify the attorney-in-fact from all liability for acts done in good faith and not in fraud of the Principal.

10. APPLICABLE LAW. The laws of the State of Washington shall govern this power of attorney.

This power of attorney is signed this 4 day of ^{NOVEMBER} ~~October~~, 1993, to become effective as provided in Paragraph 4.
