1. Designation and Powers. I, STUART E. ROGERS, as principal, do hereby appoint THOMAS B. FOSTER and my son, CHARLES STUART ROGERS, acting together, as my attorney in fact with full power and authority to do and perform all acts in my place and stead as fully as I might do and perform such acts as principal, including but not limited to all acts in regard to the sale, purchase, lease, mortgage, exchange and conveyance of all property, whether real, personal or mixed. Specifically included within this general authority, and not by way of limitation thereon, shall be the following powers:

A. The power to deal in all respects with banks, brokerage houses and other financial institutions, including authority over all accounts and access to any safe deposit box held in my name.

B. The power to prepare, execute and file on my behalf any returns or other documentation required by the Internal Revenue Service and to take all actions and execute all documents on my behalf which my attorney in fact deems necessary to resolve any issue concerning taxes owed by me.

C. The power to provide for my support, maintenance, health and urgent necessities including full authority to consent on my behalf to medical treatment when I am unable to do so.

D. The power to make gifts on my behalf each year consistent with my previous gifting activity; and, in addition, to make gifts, not in excess of the annual exclusion provided by § 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended from time to time, to any of my children and grandchildren.

E. The power to disclaim pursuant to Chapter 11.86 of the Revised Code of Washington all or any assets, property or interest to which I might otherwise be entitled as a beneficiary, as that term is defined in RCW 11.86.010.

2. Accounting. My attorney in fact shall keep a reasonable record of actions taken on my behalf and shall be reimbursed for all costs and expenses reasonably incurred. In addition, my attorney in fact shall receive at least annually, without court approval, reasonable compensation for services performed on my behalf.

3. Guardian. If it becomes necessary to appoint a guardian of my person or estate, I hereby appoint THOMAS B. FOSTER and my son, CHARLES STUART ROGERS, acting together to serve as my guardian.
