If the Buyers' interest and/or occupancy in such real estate shall pass from Buyers by deed, assignment, lease with option to purchase or otherwise, or if such real estate is sold on executory contract, then such change in title or interest or occupancy shall be deemed to increase the risk to Sellers, and Sellers or their heirs or assigns may, with written notice to Buyers, declare the entire contract balance due and payable immediately or, at their sole discretion, they may consent to such change in title or occupancy and may increase the interest rate on this contract not to exceed two (2%) percent per annum to compensate for such increased risk. Such increase in interest rate shall entitle Sellers to increase monthly installment payments on this contract so that the contract balance shall be paid in full within the time originally stipulated.

FORFEITURE: Time is of the essence of this contract and if the Buyers shall fail, refuse or neglect to pay either or any of the installments or interest or any other payment due, or shall fail to keep and/or perform any of the covenants and agreements herein contained on the part of the Buyers to be performed, then the Sellers may cancel and render void all rights, titles and interest of the Buyers and their successors in this contract and in the real estate which is the subject of this contract by giving a Notice of Intent to Forfeit pursuant to RCW 61.30.040-070, and said cancellation and forfeiture shall become effective if the default therein specified has not been fully cured within ninety (90) days thereafter and the Sellers record a Declaration of Forfeiture pursuant to RCW 61.30.040-070. Upon the forfeiture of this contract, the Sellers may retain all payments made hereunder by the Buyers and may take possession of the property ten (10) days following the date this contract is forfeited and summarily eject the Buyers and any person or persons having possession of the said property by, through or under the Buyers who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture. In the event the Buyers or any person or persons claiming by, through or under the Buyers who were properly given the Notice of Intent to Forfeit and the Declaration of Forfeiture remain in possession of the property more than ten (10) days after such forfeiture, the Buyers, or such person or persons, shall be deemed tenants at will of the Sellers and the Sellers shall be entitled to institute an action for summary possession of the property, and may recover from the Buyers or such person or persons in any such proceedings the fair rental value of the property for the use thereof from and after the date of forfeiture, plus costs, including Sellers' reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 12. OTHER REMEDIES: As an alternative to declaring a forfeiture for any such default, Sellers may, at their election, bring an action or actions, on any intermediate overdue installment, or on any payment or payments made by the Sellers and repayable by the Buyers, it being stipulated and agreed that the covenant to pay intermediate installments or to repay items repayable by the Buyers, are independent of the covenant to make a deed.

Or Sellers may, in the event of such default, at their election, declare the entire unpaid balance immediately due and payable and bring such action or actions as they may deem appropriate to effect collection thereof.

It is agreed that any such action is an action arising on contract for the recovery of money only, as if the promise to pay had been expressed in a different instrument, and that no such action shall constitute an election not to proceed otherwise as to any subsequent default.

Section 13. COSTS AND ATTORNEY'S FEES:

A. If this contract or any obligation contained in it is referred to any attorney for collection, forfeiture, realization, Buyers agree to pay to Sellers a reasonable attorney's fee, (including fees incurred with or without legal suit), expenses of title search and all other legal expenses. B. In the event litigation arises out of this contract, the losing party agrees to pay the prevailing party a reasonable attorney's fee, together with all costs and expenses incurred in connection with such action, including the reasonable cost of searching the records to determine the condition of title at the time suit is commenced.

Section 14. REPRESENTATIONS: Buyers acknowledge that they have knowledge of the location of the property lines of the afore-described real estate. Buyers covenant and agree they have found the property to be to their satisfaction and they agree that no promises, representations, statements or warranties, expressed or implied, as to any improvements thereon or repairs thereto, as to location of boundary lines or as to any zone classification or regulation, shall be binding upon the Sellers unless expressly contained herein. Sellers represent that they have no knowledge of any contamination of the subject real property by hazardous waste or materials.

Section 15. WAIVER: No assent, expressed or implied, by Sellers to any breach of Buyers' covenants or agreements shall be deemed or taken to be a waiver of any succeeding breach of the same or other covenants.
