consider any pattern of giving established by me, my ability to continue making such gift or gifts, my continued health and well-being, the impact of inflation on the value of such gifts, reduction of death taxes at the time of my death and other estate planning considerations. My attorney-in-fact shall not breach any fiduciary duty to me by reason of gifts made or withheld in good faith. This authority shall not be unlimited concerning the right of my agent to make gift to self. It should not be considered an unlimited power of appointment.

13. Disclaimers: My attorney-in-fact is authorized to disclaim and renounce pursuant to the laws of any State and the Internal Revenue Code, in whole or in part, all or any assets, property or interests to which I might be entitled as a beneficiary whether outright, in trust, testate or intestate, or otherwise, so long as in the sole discretion of my attorney-in-fact such disclaimer would not be detrimental to my best interests and would be in the best interests of those interested in the estate of the principal and of those who may take as a result of such disclaimer. In disclaiming, my attorney-in-fact may rely with acquittance on the advice of my attorney at law regarding my estate planning objectives.

14. Estate Planning: My attorney-in-fact is granted the authority to revoke on my behalf any joint tenancy agreement or revocable trust. My attorney-in-fact may make, amend, alter or revoke any of my life insurance beneficiary designations and retirement plan beneficiary designations so long as in the sole discretion of my attorney-in-fact such action would be in my best interest and of those interested in my estate. I do not intend that my attorney-in-fact change my estate plan, keeping in mind, however, the fact that tax and distribution laws change and the needs of my descendants may change, and to that end, I grant my attorney-in-fact the power set forth in this paragraph for the purpose of reducing death taxes and to facilitate the transfer of property at the time of my death.

15. Transfers: My attorney-in-fact shall have the authority to make any transfer of resources for the purpose of qualifying on my behalf for medical assistance or the limited casualty program for the medically needy. The attorney-in-fact shall have the authority to make any nonprohibited transfer of resources for the purpose of qualifying the principal for state or federal medical care assistance.

16. Health Care Decisions: Health care decisions shall be made by the agent designated in my Medical Power of Attorney for Health Care or if I have not signed such a document, then by the person named herein.

17. Legal: To institute, supervise, prosecute, defend, intervene, abandon, compromise, settle, dismiss, appeal and to participate in any legal, judicial, equitable or other action on my behalf.

and to perform any and all acts that I could perform with respect to the above-specified tax matters, including the power to negotiate, compromise, settle, and litigate such matters, to receive refund checks and to sign the returns. This power of attorney revokes all earlier powers of attorney and tax information authorizations on file with the Internal Revenue Service of the same tax matters and years or periods covered by this power of attorney. My attorney-in-fact may represent me in all tax matters, including but not limited to federal, state, local, gift, FICA, payroll, and all other funds before all officers and at all levels.

26. Nomination of Guardian: If it should at any time be necessary to appoint a guardian or limited guardian of the estate of the principal, I hereby nominate the attorney-in-fact designated herein as such guardian or limited guardian of my estate. I nominate the person designated in my medical power of attorney as the guardian of my person if necessary. If I have not signed such a document then the person named herein is nominated as guardian of my person if necessary.

27. Indemnity: My estate shall hold harmless and indemnify my attorney-in-fact from any and all liability from acts done in good faith and not in fraud of the Principal. This indemnification shall not extend to any negligence or willful wrongdoing by my attorney-in-fact.

28. Termination of Guardian: The appointment of a guardian of my estate vests in that guardian, with court approval, the power to revoke, suspend, or terminate this power of attorney. A guardian of the person does not have such power.

29. Governing Law: The terms of this Power of Attorney shall be governed by the laws of the State of Washington.
