J. J. McNutt to Maier & Schanno.

Deed of Sale.

Know all Men By These Presents, that J. J. McNutt, for and in consideration of the sum of One hundred forty six and 25/100 Dollars to me paid by the firm of Maier & Schanno of the State of Oregon, have bargained, sold and transferred and do By These Presents bargain, sell and transfer unto the said Maier & Schanno all of the following described personal property, to-wit:

Forty-five (45) cords of four foot fir cord wood now lying on the premises of A. J. Haynes about three miles back, in a westerly direction of Underwood, Washington.

To Have and To Hold the said personal property unto the said Maier & Schanno, their heirs and assigns forever.

It is understood that the sum of $65.25 of the consideration above mentioned has heretofore been advanced to me by the said firm of Maier & Schanno and that the balance of $81.00 of said consideration shall be due and payable upon the delivery of all of said cord wood on the beach of the Columbia River at Underwood, Washington, in a convenient place to be loaded on a scow, said delivery to be made in the summer of 1915 following high-water in the Columbia River. It is further understood that the said balance of $81.00 shall, when due, be applied on the note and Mortgage heretofore given by me to the said firm of Maier & Schanno on one team of horses owned by me.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 10th day of March, 1915
