E. J. BLAZIER TO WASHINGTON NORTHERN RAILROAD CO.

WHEREAS, E. J. Blazier, as the original lessee, holds certain railroad rights of way and booming and operating privileges in Skamania County, State of Washington, as particularly described in the several leases hereinafter referred to; and,

Whereas, E. J. Blazier has heretofore sold all his rights and interests under and by virtue of said leases to the Washington Northern Railroad Company, a corporation under the laws of the State of Oregon, and new leases to said rights of way, booming and operating privileges have been taken directly from the owners of the ground to the said Washington Northern Railroad Company with the intent that the said prior leases held by said E. J. Blazier should, on the taking effect of the new leases, become merged therein:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the sum of five dollars ($5) to him paid, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said E. J. Blazier does hereby sell, assign, transfer and set over unto the said Washington Northern Railroad Company, its successors and assigns, all those certain leases of rights of way and booming and operating privileges by him now held, together with all rights, privileges, immunities and interests of the said E. J. Blazier existing under or by virtue of the same, which said leases are described as follows, to-wit:

1. That certain indenture of lease executed on the 28th day of Nov., 1908, by and between Robert C. Prindle and E. J. Blazier, recorded on the 4th day of December, 1908, in book 2 of leases and agreements on page 6 of the records of Skamania County, State of Washington;

2. That certain indenture of lease executed on the 28th day of November, 1908, by and between Robert C. Prindle and Louise A. Prindle, his wife, and E. J. Blazier, recorded on the 4th day of December, 1908, in book 2 of leases and agreements at pages 4 and 5 of the records of said Skamania County, State of Washington;

3. That certain indenture of lease executed on the 24th day of November, 1908, by and between Robert C. Prindle and Louise A. Prindle, his wife, as lessors, and E. J. Blazier, as lessee, recorded on the 4th day of December, 1908, in book 2 of leases and agreements, at page 30 of the records of said Skamania County, State of Washington.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the same to the said Washington Northern Railroad Company, its successors and assigns, for the full, unexpired term for which the said several leasehold rights, privileges and interests were originally demise; with the intent and to the end that the said Washington Northern Railroad Company shall use and enjoy the said rights and privileges, and that the same shall be and become completely merged in the leasehold rights, interests and titles which the said Washington Northern Railroad Company has acquired and now holds by descent demise from the owners from the owners of said lands.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said E. J. Blazier has hereunto set his hand and seal at Portland, Oregon, this 9th day of June, 1910.
