PRINDLE TO TATUM

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That E.F. Prindle, hereinafter known as party of the first part, is hereby firmly bound unto H.A. Tatum, party of the second part, his heirs, successors, executors, administrators and assigns in the full sum of Two Hundred and Twenty-five Dollars, ($225.00) well and truly to be paid to said party of the second part, her heirs, successors, executors, administrators and assigns.

Sealed and dated the 26th day of July, '912.

The conditions of said contract are as follows:

The said first party has this day agreed to sell to the second party, "Tract 6 Sunshine Acres," Prindle, Washington, and make and deliver to the second party a good and sufficient deed and abstract to said lot, for the full sum of Two Hundred and Twenty-five ($225.00) to be paid as follows:

$50.00 down, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and balance to be paid within two years from date of this instrument, interest on unpaid balance seven (7) per cent if monthly payments of at least $5.00, are not made.

Therefore, should the said second party pay said sums as above specified, and should the said first party execute and deliver to the said second party a good and sufficient deed as aforesaid, then this obligation is to be null and void, otherwise to be in full force and effect.

Said second party agrees to fence "Tract 6 Sunshine Acres" within ninety days from the date of this instrument, and said second party agrees not to turn any stock in until said tract is fenced. The said second party agrees that time is the essence of this contract; and that in case he shall fail to comply with the above mentioned covenants and making the said payments within two years from date, when they become due, then this bond and contract shall be null and void and all payments theretofore made by said second party shall thereby be forfeited to said first party, as and for liquidation and stipulated damages, and said second party will on demand therefor forthwith quit, deliver up and surrender possession of said premises to said first party, his successors and assigns; and said first party and his successors and assigns, may after such default or failure enter upon said premises and take

EMIL WILLARD TO MAHAMA LUMBER CO.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That, WHEREAS, Emil Willard and Barbara Willard his wife, did, by a deed dated January 22, 1903, and subsequently recorded in Book "H" on page 369, of deeds, of Skamania County, State of Washington, sell all of the fallen and standing merchantable timber upon and from the following described real estate situate, lying and being in the County of Skamania, State of Washington, to wit:

The N $\frac{1}{2}$ of the SW $\frac{1}{4}$; and the SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of the SW $\frac{1}{4}$; and the SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of the SE $\frac{1}{4}$; and all of the NW $\frac{1}{4}$; all in Sec. 26, Twp. 4 N. of R. 9 E. Willamette Meridian, in which said deed it was provided that the standing and fallen timber thereupon was to be removed at any time within ten years after the date of said deed; except as to said timber on the northwest quarter thereof, which was to be removed at any time within fifteen years after the date of said deed; and, if not so removed within said date and dates, all of said timber to revert to the said parties of the first part in said instrument name, which said parties are the parties of the first part in this instrument; and

WHEREAS, the grantee in the aforesaid instrument prior to the date of the expiration of the period fixed for the removal of any or all of said timber, did, convey and assign its interest therein and thereunto; and that thereafter the Mahama Lumber Company a corporation, of the state of Washington, became the owner of said timber rights set forth in the aforesaid deed, pursuant to the terms and conditions thereof; and

WHEREAS, the right to cut and remove said timber as provided in said deed has expired and terminated, with regard to all of said real property, save and except the NW $\frac{1}{4}$ thereof, which does not expire until 1918; that all of said rights, title and interest in the balance of said real property has become vested by the terms of said deed, in the grantors in said instrument named, and who are the parties of the first part herein; and

WHEREAS, the said Mahama Lumber Company, a Corporation, is desirous of securing a revival and continuance of said right, to cut and remove the said timber from all of that portion of the above real property covered by said term of ten years limitation; and in consideration of said continuance is desirous of the further right of and to a right of way over, across and upon said real property, for the construction,
