Oregon Fir Lumber Company to F. B. Mallory

Know All Men By These Presents, That Whereas, Oregon Fir Lumber Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Oregon, did, on the 11th day of March, 1914, execute to A. M. Stearns a chattel mortgage upon all of its sawmill equipment for the purpose of securing the sum of Six Thousand ($6000) Dollars, together with interest thereon at the rate of 7% per annum from the 15th day of March, 1914, according to the terms of two certain promissory notes, which said notes and mortgage were thereafter, for a valuable consideration, duly Sold, Assigned and Transferred to F. B. Mallory,

And Whereas, Oregon Fir Lumber Company has been unable to pay the said principal sum or interest to F. B. Mallory and there is now due and owing to said F. B. Mallory by reason thereof the sum of Six Thousand, Six Hundred Fifty-five Dollars and Eighty cents ($6655.80), together with interest thereon at the rate of 7% per annum upon the sum of Six Thousand ($6000) Dollars from the 15th day of May, 1919.

And Whereas the said F. B.
