Godard to Irwin

Know all men by these presents that I, Myrtle L. Godard (formerly Myrtle L. Watson) party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of one Dollar and other valuable considerations to me in hand paid by Mrs. S. S. Irwin (now Wood) party of the second part, do by these presents sell unto the said party of the second part, the following personal property in Skamania County, Washington to-wit: Two cows, one red cow and one a red and white cow, one horse named by Jim, bay horse with white star, one wagon, one saddle, harness, 1 cultivated, one plow, 12 rolls of stock fence wire, one calculator and brooder, one hog, 247 chickens, all now upon the homestead of the said party of first part at Boulder, Skamania County Washington. Also all and singular all the rest of the personal property now upon the said homestead including household goods. To have and to hold the same unto the said party of the second part, and I do for myself and for my heirs, executors, administrators, assigns and agree to and with the said party of the second part that said property above described is my separate property and that I am well satisfied of the same and have good right to sell the same
