  - c. Sell, convey, exchange or otherwise transfer or encumber any real or personal property of the principal.
  - d. FOR

- h. Make gifts, whether outright or in trust, to the relatives of the principal and the spouses of any such relatives, including gifts to my attorney-in-fact and his or her family members in accordance with any pattern of making gifts to such persons which the principal has established or planned to establish or in such amounts as the attorney-in-fact shall determine appropriate so long as such gifts would be in the best interests of the principal and those interested in the estate of the principal, such determination to be made in the sole discretion of my attorney-in-fact.
- i. Make, amend, alter or revoke any of the principal's life insurance, annuity, or similar contract beneficiary designations, employee benefit plan beneficiary designations, trust agreements, registration of the principal's securities in beneficiary form, payable on death or transfer on death beneficiary designations, designations of persons as joint tenants with right of survivorship with the principal with respect to any of the principal's property, community property agreements, or any other provisions for nonprobate transfer at death contained in nontestamentary instruments described in RCW 11.02.091 so long as, in the sole discretion of the attorney-in-fact, such action would be in the best interests of the principal and those interested in the principal's estate.
- j. In the event the principal becomes incompetent, as defined hereunder, and requires long-term health care and/or long-term custodial care and the principal becomes eligible for Medicaid benefits or benefits from some other similar program, the attorney-in-fact shall have the authority to execute a waiver on behalf of the principal, waiving the principal's right to a homestead, and family allowance, as allowed under RCW 11.52.010, et seq., and any other right accruing to the principal as a result of the death of the principal's spouse. The principal shall be considered incompetent if he is unable to manage his personal or financial affairs due to mental illness, mental deficiency, physical illness or disability or any other cause. Determination of incompetency shall be made by the principal's personal or treating physicians, or a court of competent jurisdiction which deems the principal incompetent, incapacitated or otherwise legally unable to effectively manage his personal or financial affairs.

k. Provide informed consent to (1) medical and surgical care and non-treatment for the principal, (2) the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment for the principal, and (3) the admission of the principal to a medical, nursing, residential, or similar facility; enter into agreements for the principal's care; pay from the principal's assets reasonable expenses incurred with respect to the exercise of the authority granted herein to make health care decisions for the principal or with respect to the enforcement of any Directive to Physicians executed by the principal; and override the provisions of any Directive to Physicians executed by the principal.

Except as otherwise provided above, the attorney-in-fact shall not have the power to revoke or change any estate planning or testamentary documents previously executed by the principal, unless the document authorizes changes with court approval.

4. Intent to Obviate Need for Guardianship. It is the principal's intent that the power given to the attorney-in-fact designated herein be interpreted to be so broad as to obviate the need for the appointment of a guardian for the person or estate of the principal. If the appointment of a guardian or limited guardian of the person or estate of the principal is sought, however, the principal nominates KATHERYN M. ANGELO as the principal's guardian or limited guardian. If at any time KATHERYN M. ANGELO is or becomes unable or unwilling to act as guardian, then the principal nominates ALBERT C. ANGELO, JR. as the principal's guardian or limited guardian.
