This matter having come before this court on the motion of petitioner for an order permitting it to file an amendment to the declaration of taking and an amended petition for condemnation, said motion being supported by the affidavit of F. A. LeSourd, one of the attorneys for the petitioner; and it appearing to the court that the petitioner on February 2, 1939, filed a declaration of taking in this proceeding, taking a certain interest in the name of the United States in and to certain real property therein described; and it further appearing that on the same date a petition for condemnation of said property was filed by the petitioner and a check deposited by said petitioner with the Clerk of this court in the amount of the estimated just compensation for such taking and that this court, on February 3, 1939, entered its judgment on the declaration of taking, reciting the vesting of title in the petitioner and determining the date upon which the petitioner was entitled to possession of the property; and

It now appearing to the court by the motion of petitioner and the affidavit of F. A. LeSourd that the declaration of taking so filed contained a certain error in description
