Swan J. Johnson to Hulda Augusta Johnson

Will

I, Swan J. Johnson, and I, Hulda Agusta Johnson, being of sound mind, hereby make this our Will and Testament:

That at the death of either one of us, all of the property, both real and personal, shall go to the surviving one.

That at the death of both of us, it is our will that at the death of the survivor, all of the remaining property be divided share and share alike among our three children; namely, one third each to: Frank O. Johnson; Carrie L. Purdy; and Selma June Trine.

It is also our will that Ford Purdy be appointed administrator to carry out our wishes without bonds.

Dated at Carson Washington, this 27 day of May 1942.
