ASSIGNMENT OF WATER RIGHTS

WHEREAS, under date of the 1st day of August, 1919, the Portland Railway Light and Power Company, an Oregon corporation, conveyed certain water rights to W. D. Arnold and George Broughton for flume purposes and for irrigating and domestic purposes, said rights being particularly set forth in said agreement; and

WHEREAS, said water rights were assigned by the said W. D. Arnold and George Broughton to Drano Flume & Lumber Company, a Washington corporation, with the consent of the Portland Railway Light and Power Company; and

WHEREAS, said agreement was extended by the Casadera Land Company, a successor in interest and subsidiary of Portland Railway Light and Power Company, to the Broughton Lumber Company, the grantee of Drano Flume and Lumber Company; and

WHEREAS, A. T. FRALEY and LAURA A. FRALEY, husband and wife, formerly co-partners with Harold J. Broughton and D. M. Stevenson, are selling their interest in the Broughton Lumber Company,

NOW, THEREFORE, for the purposes of assigning all of the right, title and interest of A. T. Fraley and Laura A. Fraley, husband and wife, in and to the water rights and all rights under the agreement above referred to, the said A. T. FRALEY and LAURA A. FRALEY, husband and wife, for and in consideration of the sum of Ten ($10.00) Dollars and other good and valuable consideration, hereby sell, assign and transfer unto HAROLD J. BROUGHTON and D. M. STEVENSON, co-partners, doing business as Broughton Lumber Company, all of their right, title and interest in any and all rights existing under and by virtue of the above mentioned agreement for maintenance and operation of a flume known as the Drano Flume & Lumber Company's flume, now owned by the Broughton Lumber Company, and for irrigation and domestic purposes, together with all water rights of every kind and nature, used, enjoyed or owned by the Broughton Lumber Company, whether such rights were acquired by filing under the state statutes, by contract or otherwise.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the assignors have hereunto set their hands, this the 23 day of April, 1942.
