Bill of Sale.

Know all men by these presents, That A. T. Fraley and Laura A. Fraley, husband and wife, hereinafter referred to as the vendors, for the sum of Ten (*10.00) Dollars and other good and valuable considerations, hereby sell and convey all of their right, title and interest in and to the following described personal property, unto Harold J. Broughton and D. M. Stevenson, co-partners, doing business under the fire name and style of Broughton Lumber Company, to-wit:

That certain sawmill property consisting principally of sawmill machinery and equipment used and connected with or appertaining to the sawmill known and operated as the Broughton Lumber Company, located on the following described real property, to-wit:

The Northeast Quarter (NE $^1_\pm$) of Section Two (2), Township Three (3) North, Range Nine (2) East of the Villamette Meridian.

That certain flume extending from the sawmill located on the real property above described to Hood, Wasnington, on the Columbia River, being the flume formerly known as the flume of the Drano Flume & Lumber Co. and now owned and operated by the Broughton Lumber Company, which flume crosses the following described real property in Skamania County, Washington, to-wit:

The water for this flume is taken out of the Little White Salmon River in the Southwest Quarter (SW2) of Section 36, Township 4 North, Range 9 East of the Willamette Meridian. This is the property of the U.S. Government over which a right-of-way is had for one-fourth miles. One-eighth of a mile from the source a flume cuts off going to the sawmill; this flume runs over the property of the Broughton Lumber Company, the East Half (E1) of the Northeast Quarter (NE2) of Section 2, Township 3 North, Range 9 East of the Willamette Meridian. Leaving the mill, the flume crosses the Little White Salmon River onto the property of
