

acquired by said party of the second part in the vicinity of said roads, provided, however, they shall not be used for the removal of yellow fir, or any cedar the party of the first part may desire to acquire.

In consideration for the use of said roads the party of the second part promises and agrees to pay to the party of the first part the sum of ten dollars per annum during such time as he may actually use said roads, and to contribute to the upkeep of said roads in proportion to the amount of his user thereof.

It is understood and agreed that the party of the first part is engaged in logging and removing yellow fir and cedar, and that the party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, will not compete with him in said operations in this locality. It is further agreed that the operations of the party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, shall be confined to the property herein specifically described and to other property which may be acquired by the party of the second part, by bona-fide purchase or contract for the benefit of himself or his direct assigns to be logged in connection therewith, and that the rights hereby granted shall not be subject to assignment except for said purpose without the consent of the party of the first part.
