

(v) the following is substituted for the last paragraph of said portion of Article 1:

"The signer of any Certificate of Gas Supply filed on or after April 1, 1959, in determining the amount of available gas supply or firm gas supply of the Company through deliveries from Westcoast Transmission Company Limited or any successor thereto (herein referred to as "Westcoast") may, if he considers such information reliable and so states in such Certificate, rely on any figures relating to the gas supply of Westcoast contained in the certificate of gas supply most recently filed with the trustee under the Deed of Trust and Mortgage between Westcoast and Montreal Trust Company, to be dated as of May 1, 1956, pursuant to which the First Mortgage Bonds of Westcoast are to be issued, or, if said Deed of Trust and Mortgage is not at the time in effect, with the trustee under any other indenture pursuant to which bonds of Westcoast shall at the time be outstanding if, pursuant to the terms of such other indenture, (1) said certificate of gas supply shall be signed by a person who would qualify as an Independent Engineer under this Indenture and (2) in rendering the opinion expressed in said certificate of gas supply, the signer thereof shall be required to consider substantially the same factors in determining Westcoast's available gas supply and the firm gas supply as are required to be considered by the signer of a certificate of gas supply in determining the available gas supply and firm gas supply of Westcoast under said Deed of Trust and Mortgage between Westcoast and Montreal Trust Company to be dated as of May 1, 1956, and none of such gas supply of Westcoast shall be excluded from available gas supply or firm gas supply of the Company solely on account of the location of such gas in relation to the Company's pipe lines, provided that

(a) there shall not be included in available gas supply of the Company any gas to be received by it from Westcoast in excess of the quantities which the Company shall then have the right or option to purchase from Westcoast; and

(b) in determining the amount of available gas supply or firm gas supply of the Company through deliveries from Westcoast, the signer of any Certificate of Gas Supply

(i) shall not include in his calculations any amount in excess of the daily volume of gas which
