

addresses as the same shall appear on the transfer register of the Company; provided, however, that if all the Bonds of the 1975 Series at the time outstanding shall be registered Bonds, then such notice by publication shall not be required.

In case the Company proposes to redeem all or any portion of the outstanding Bonds of any series (whether in the exercise of any privilege of redemption at the option of the Company or in order to meet the requirements of any sinking, amortization, purchase or other analogous fund), it shall, in each such instance, not less than 10 days prior to the date on which notice of such redemption is to be given, file an Officers' Certificate with the Trustee, stating the Company's intention to effect such redemption and specifying the redemption date and the aggregate principal amount of the Bonds of such series to be called for redemption, and, if such call is to be made with respect to a sinking fund installment, specifying the sinking fund installment with respect to which such call is to be made. Thereupon, if less than all the outstanding Bonds of any series are to be called for redemption, the Trustee shall, in the manner hereinafter in this § 6.01 provided with respect to the Bonds of the 1975 Series or in the applicable manner provided in the supplemental indenture creating the Bonds of any other series, determine the Bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed and promptly notify the Company in writing of the numbers of such Bonds to be redeemed and, if less than the entire principal amount of any Bond is to be redeemed, the portion of such Bond to be redeemed. Any determination by lot under this § 6.01 shall be made in such manner as the Trustee in its uncontrolled discretion shall deem appropriate and fair. In the discretion of the Trustee, the Bonds to be redeemed may be drawn by lot (a) individually or (b) by one or more groups, the grouping for the purpose of such drawing to be serial numbers (or, in the case of Bonds of a denomination of more than $1,000, by the numbers assigned thereto as hereinafter provided) which end in the same digit or digits. In case, upon any drawing by groups, the total principal amount of Bonds drawn shall exceed the amount to be redeemed, the excess may be deducted from any group or groups so drawn in such manner as the Trustee may determine. For the purpose of any drawing the Trustee shall assign a number for each $1,000 principal amount of each
