

(including without limitation property of the character referred to in the foregoing subdivision (iii)) located on, in or under real estate owned by the Company;

(v) any integrated gasoline absorption property, as defined in this Section, located on, in or under real estate owned by the Company;

(vi) reservoirs or other facilities for the storage of gas produced or purchased by the Company for use in its natural gas pipeline systems or for the storage, in gaseous or liquefied state, of hydrocarbon by-products or components of natural gas produced with or derived from natural gas produced or purchased by the Company for use in its natural gas pipeline systems or resulting from the operations of any plant or facility which constitutes integrated gasoline absorption property as defined in this Section, including underground gas fields or other underground formations used or useful for such purpose and improvements thereto, located on, in or under real estate owned by the Company;

(vii) any property (other than gas production property) of the character described in the foregoing subdivisions (iv), (v) and (vi) located on, in or under lands held by the Company under leases expiring (or renewable at the option of the Company for terms expiring) not earlier than the maturity of the latest maturing bonds at the time issued and outstanding hereunder or then being applied for, or under permits from federal, state, municipal or other public authorities, provided that the aggregate cost or fair value, whichever is less, of all such properties (other than facilities of the character described in the foregoing subdivision (iii)), certified to the Corporate Trustee as bondable additions hereunder and which shall continue to be located on lands held under such leases or permits, shall not exceed $40,000,000; and

(viii) gas production property, as defined in Section 1.13A;

provided that such property or rights shall be situated in one or more of the States of the United States of America or in any tideland or offshore area adjacent to any such State over which the Government of such State or the Government of the United States of America asserts jurisdiction and shall be used or useful in the business of pro-