

(a) the volumes of gas required for deliveries during each twelve months' period in the future (counting from the April 1 next preceding the date of such Certificate) at an annual rate equal to the volumes of gas sold and delivered by the Company during the twelve months' period ended on the March 31 next preceding the date of such Certificate; provided, however, that (i) if any such sales or deliveries shall have been made under a written contract limiting the maximum volume of gas which the Company from time to time has a firm obligation to deliver thereunder, then the volume of gas deliverable by the Company under such contract during each such subsequent period in respect of which such a limitation is in effect shall be taken to be (in lieu of the volume of gas sold and delivered under such contract during the next preceding twelve months) a volume of gas equal to 92% of the Company's maximum firm delivery obligation from time to time in effect under such contract; (ii) deliveries under any written contract, whether or not such contract limits the maximum volume of gas which the Company from time to time has a firm obligation to deliver thereunder, shall be taken into account only for the remaining unexpired term of such contract as the same exists at the date of such Certificate; and (iii) in making the foregoing computations of future withdrawals there shall be excluded all sales and deliveries (whether or not made under a written contract), in or adjacent to the fields from which the Company obtains its gas supply, involving the utilization and disposition of residue gas (i.e., gas derived from casinghead gas produced in conjunction with oil or distillate) not currently required for the Company's other sales of gas from its pipe line system or for use in its operations; and

(b) the volumes of gas which, based on the Company's experience during the twelve months' period ended on the March 31 next preceding the date of such Certificate, it will be necessary for the Company to use in its operations from time to time in processing and/or treating the volumes of gas from time to time deliverable by the Company in the future, determined as provided in (a) above, and in transporting the same from the respective points of origin to the respective points of delivery, and for covering line losses and losses in operations.

The term "contract", as used herein, shall include any rate schedule or tariff filed by the Company with the Federal Power Commission or
