

supply, involving the utilization and disposition of residue gas (i.e., gas derived from casinghead gas produced in conjunction with oil or distillate) not currently required for the Company's other sales of gas from its pipe line system or for use in its operations; and

(b) the volumes of gas which, based on the Company's experience during the twelve months' period ended on the March 31 next preceding the date of such Certificate, it will be necessary for the Company to use in its operations from time to time in processing and/or treating the volumes of gas from time to time deliverable by the Company in the future, determined as provided in (a) above, and in transporting the same from the respective points of origin to the respective points of delivery, and for covering line losses and losses in operations.

The term "contract", as used herein, shall include any rate schedule or tariff filed by the Company with the Federal Power Commission or any other Federal or State commission or other governmental authority having jurisdiction to regulate any sale or delivery of gas by the Company, and each contract, rate schedule or tariff shall be read in conjunction with and interpreted in the light of all general conditions, executed service contracts, rules, regulations or orders at the time in effect applicable thereto.

If it is stated in any such Certificate that the date of exhaustion of the Company's available gas supply will be not earlier than September 1, 1975, the Certificate filed shall be entitled "Certificate of Available Gas Supply, Form A" (in this Article referred to as "Certificate A"). If in any such Certificate such date of exhaustion is specified to be a date earlier than September 1, 1975, the Certificate filed shall be entitled "Certificate of Available Gas Supply, Form B" (in this Article referred to as "Certificate B"), and in such event such Certificate shall also state (i) the total volume of the Company's available gas supply as at the date of determination thereof specified in such Certificate, and (ii) the volume of the Company's sales and uses of gas, determined as provided in the first paragraph of this Section, for each successive twelve months' period commencing with the April 1 next preceding the date of such Certificate and continuing to and including the date of exhaustion specified in such Certificate.
