

by increasing or decreasing by not more than $1,000 the amount which would be allocable on the basis of exact proportion to coupon bonds registered as to principal and/or registered bonds without coupons or to coupon bonds not registered as to principal, or to any one or more registered owners of bonds, as may be necessary to the end that the principal amount so prorated shall be in each instance an integral multiple of $1,000.

(c) If only coupon bonds registered as to principal and/or registered bonds without coupons of such series are outstanding, the Corporate Trustee may select the bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed in accordance with the terms of a written agreement, filed with the Corporate Trustee at any time and satisfactory to it, executed by the then registered owners of all of the bonds of such series at the time outstanding, which written agreement may alter in whole or in part the procedure set forth in clause (b) of this Section.

SECTION 5.03. In case the Company shall desire to exercise such right to redeem and pay all or, as the case may be, any part of the bonds of a particular series, in accordance with the right reserved so to do (including bonds to be redeemed for the account of any sinking fund provided for the bonds of such series), notice of its intention to redeem and pay such bonds shall be given as hereinafter in this Section provided, except as may be otherwise provided in the bonds of a particular series and/or in the resolutions or supplemental indenture providing for the creation of such series. Notice of such intention, stating the date on which and the place where the bonds (or portions thereof) are to be redeemed and paid and, if less than all of the outstanding bonds of such series are to be redeemed, specifying the series and numbers of the bonds so to be redeemed, shall be given by publication in a newspaper printed in the English language, customarily published on each business day and of general circulation in the Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York, in each case at least once in each week for three successive calendar weeks, the first publication to be not less than thirty and not more than ninety days prior to the date so fixed for redemption.

Said notice shall state that the interest on the bonds called for redemption shall cease to accrue on the designated redemption date,
