

ARTICLE TWO

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

Section 2.01. So long as any Series F bonds are outstanding the Company will not apply any sum to the redemption, retirement or purchase of any share of its common stock, nor to the payment of any dividend or other disbursement thereon (exclusive of dividends payable in its common stock) if, after giving effect to such dividend, distribution, purchase or other acquisition, the sum of (a) the aggregate amount of all dividends and distributions paid on shares of capital stock of any class (other than dividends and distributions made in shares of capital stock) subsequent to June 30, 1960, plus (b) the excess, if any, of the amount applied to or set apart for the purchase or other acquisition of any shares of capital stock of any class subsequent to the time when the first of such Series F bonds shall be authenticated by the Trustee, over such amounts as shall have been received as the net cash proceeds of sales of shares of capital stock of any class subsequent to the time when the first of such Series F bonds shall be authenticated by the Trustee would exceed the Company's net income since June 30, 1960 (treated as one accounting period), plus Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000). The foregoing shall not be construed to prohibit the payment of dividends on preferred stock or the purchase of preferred stock to satisfy sinking fund requirements.

Section 2.02. The Company covenants that it is lawfully seized and possessed of the property described in the granting clauses of this Sixth Supplemental Indenture and that it will warrant and defend the title to said property to the Trustees for the equal pro rata benefit of the holders of all bonds at any time outstanding under the Indenture against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever.

Section 2.03. The property of the Company will at all times be maintained and preserved in good repair and efficiency in accordance with accepted
