

$41,679.00

No. One

Camas, Washington, January 5, 1968

December 31, 1967 ~~after date~~, without grace, I promise to pay to the order of J. H. BAXTER & CO.

the principal sum of FORTY ONE THOUSAND SIX HUNDRED SEVENTY NINE & NO/100

----- ($41679.00)

for value received, with interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from date until maturity, interest payable at maturity

Said principal and interest shall be paid in lawful money of the United States, and shall bear interest from maturity until paid at the rate of seven per cent per annum.

If default be made in the payment of this note, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, then the principal sum with accrued interest shall at once become due and collectible without notice, time being of the essence, and said principal sum and interest shall bear interest from such default until paid at the rate of seven per cent per annum.

In case suit is instituted to collect this note or any portion thereof, I promise to pay such additional sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorney fees in such suit.

This note with interest is secured by mortgage

This note is to be construed in all respects and enforced according to the laws of the State of Washington.
