(2) The word "change" as the term because it is not possible to price a truly temporary increase in economic water rates. Other changes of substantial or significant effect on the number of discharges to those facilities specified, which are not a temporary increase or decrease in the number of discharges to those facilities, are not subject to the permit. The permit is issued to the facility, not to the owner or holder of a permit.

14. "Maintenance" means any and all of the maintenance, repair, or replacement work that is required to maintain or repair the equipment, and the term "maintain" shall be construed to include all of the foregoing.
