- (6) To use the loan evidenced by the note solely for purposes authorized by the Government.
- (7) To pay when due all taxes, liens, judgments, encumbrances, and assessments lawful attaching to or assessed against the property and promptly deliver to the Government without demand receipts evidencing such payments.

- (9) To maintain improvements in good repair and make repairs required by the Government, operate the property in a good and husbandmanlike manner; comply with such farm conservation practices and farm and home management plans as the Government from time to time may prescribe; and not to abandon the property, or cause or permit any lessening or impairment of the security covered hereby, or, without the written consent of the Government, cut, remove, or lease any timber, gravel, oil, gas, coal, or other minerals except as may be necessary for ordinary domestic purposes.
- (10) To comply with all laws, ordinances, and regulations affecting the property.
- (11) To reimburse the Government for expenses reasonably necessary or incidental to the protection of the lien and priority hereof to the enforcement of or the compliance with the provisions hereof and of the note and any supplementary agreement (whether before or after default), including but not limited to costs of evidence of title to indicate the property, costs of recording this and other instruments, attorneys' fees, to defend fees, court costs, and expenses of advertising, selling, and conveying the property.

- (16) Default hereunder shall constitute default under any other real estate, or under any personal property or other security instrument held or insured by the Government and executed or assumed by Borrower, and default under any such other security instrument shall constitute default hereunder.
- (17) SHOULD DEFAULT occur in the performance or discharge of any obligation incurred by this instrument, or should any one of the parties named as Borrower die or be declared an incompetent, or should any one of them, or more than one of them, for the benefit of creditors, the Government, at its option, with or without a court order, declare the entire amount unpaid under the note and any indebtedness to the Government hereby secured immediately due and payable, (a) for the account of Borrower incur and pay reasonable expenses for repair or maintenance of and take possession of, operate or rent the property, (b) upon application by it and production of this instrument, without other evidence and without notice of hearing of said application, have a receiver appointed for the property, with the usual powers of receivers in like cases, (c) foreclose this instrument as provided herein or by law, and (e) enforce any and all other rights and remedies provided herein or by present or future law.

At foreclosure or other sale of all or any part of the property, the Government and its agents may bid and purchase as a stranger and may pay the Government's share of the purchase price by crediting such amount to any debts of Borrower owing to or insured by the Government, in the order prescribed above.
- (19) As against the debt evidenced by the note and any indebtedness to the Government hereby secured, with respect to the property, Borrower (a) hereby relinquishes, waives, and conveys all rights, inchoate or consummate, of descent, dower, curtesy, homestead, valuation, appraisal, and exemption, to which Borrower is or becomes entitled under the laws and constitution of the jurisdiction where the property lies, and (b) hereby agrees that any right provided by such laws and constitution for redemption or possession following foreclosure sale shall not apply, and that no right of redemption or possession shall exist after foreclosure sale.
