1. The first step is to identify the problem. This involves understanding the current situation and what needs to be changed. 2. The second step is to set goals. These should be specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, and time-bound. 3. The third step is to develop a plan. This involves determining the steps that need to be taken to achieve the goals. 4. The fourth step is to implement the plan. This involves putting the plan into action. 5. The fifth step is to monitor and evaluate progress. This involves tracking progress and making adjustments as needed. 6. The sixth step is to report on progress. This involves communicating progress to stakeholders. 7. The seventh step is to review the process. This involves reflecting on what worked well and what could be improved. 8. The eighth step is to share the results. This involves sharing the results with others who may be interested. 9. The ninth step is to celebrate success. This involves recognizing and celebrating the achievements of the team. 10. The tenth step is to learn from experience. This involves reflecting on the experience and learning from it for future projects.

The authors are grateful to the referees for their constructive comments and suggestions.
