and the interest thereon at the rate as shown in the note secured hereby, which principal sum and the interest thereon is repayable in equal monthly installments as therein set forth beginning on the first day of March 1977 and payable on the first day of each month thereafter, according to the terms and conditions of the aforesaid promissory note bearing even date herewith.

The Mortgagors, for themselves and for their heirs and assigns, have covenanted and agreed, and do hereby covenant and agree to and with the said Mortgagee, its successors or assigns, as follows: They have a valid and unencumbered title in fee simple to said premises; they have the right to mortgage the same; they will not suffer or permit said premises to become subject to any lien or encumbrance that shall have precedence over this mortgage; they will neither do nor suffer waste, they will keep all buildings and improvements located upon the mortgaged premises in good condition and repair, and no building, or other improvement will be removed or demolished without the consent of the mortgagor, and the taking of additional security or the extension of time of payment of said indebtedness, or any part thereof, shall, at no time, release or impair the liability of any endorser or surety or security, or of any property that may occupy the place of a surety, nor improve the right of any minor less holder, and this mortgage, as well as any renewal or extension thereof, shall be held to remain a first and prior lien on all of said property not expressly released until said indebtedness is paid in full, and shall be held to security for payment of any renewal notes evidencing such indebtedness, they will render such further assurance of title as may be requested by the Mortgagor, they will warrant and defend said title unto said Mortgagor and unto his successors and assigns, against the lawful claims and demands of all persons whomsoever, they will pay all taxes or assessments that may be levied or assessed on said premises and all taxes that may be levied or assessed on this mortgage up to the holder of said note on account thereof at least thirty (30) days before they become delinquent. They will keep the buildings on said premises insured against loss by fire and other insurable value by a fire insurance policy or policies with extended coverage during the time that the cost thereby incurred of any part thereof, shall remain unpaid. Said fire insurance to be in one or more policies to be payable to the said Mortgagee that Mortgagors will deposit with the Mortgagor all policies of fire insurance in force upon said buildings as collateral security for the payment of the indebtedness hereby secured and that they will deliver to the Mortgagor all renewal policies of fire insurance at least thirty (30) days before the expiration date. The Mortgagor insures the Mortgagor to a full insurance company, what is commonly known as a "H-mowers" policy which covers the property above described as herein and so named herein and to pay the premium therefor out of insurance premium funds accumulated with the Mortgagor, for that purpose to the extent that such accumulated funds will cover said premium. The Mortgagor understands that the Mortgagor's sum obligated in any way to advance any of its own funds for purchase of any insurance, and that funds so advanced, shall be charged to the Mortgagor. In case of loss and payment by any insurance company the amount of the insurance money shall be applied either on the indebtedness secured hereby or in rebuilding or restoring the damaged building as the Mortgagor may elect. If the Mortgagors shall at any time fail to keep said building insured, the Mortgagor by its option may declare due and payable the entire debt secured by this mortgage and the said Mortgagor shall always have the right in case of default to offset such insurance and to pay the premium therefor, and any and all sum so paid by the Mortgagor shall become and be a part of the debt created by this mortgage and shall be a lien upon said premises, but in no event shall the Mortgagor be held responsible to insure to have any insurance written or for any loss or damage incurred against that the Mortgagor is authorized to compromise and settle any claims for insurance, and to receive therefrom on behalf both of the Mortgagor and his assigns and the Mortgagor.

At any time during the life of this mortgage, if any law of the State of Washington shall be enacted imposing or authorizing the imposition of any specific tax upon mortgages or upon principal or interest of moneys or notes secured by mortgages or by virtue of which the owner of the premises above described shall be authorized to pay any tax upon said moneys, note or mortgage, or either of them, and deduct the amount of such tax from any such moneys, note or mortgage, or by virtue of which any tax or assessment upon the mortgaged premises shall be chargeable against the owner of said moneys, note or mortgage, or in the event the mortgage debt or the income derived therefrom becomes taxable under any law of the State of Washington, then the principal sum hereby secured, with all accrued interest thereon, at the option of the Mortgagor, at any time after the enactment of such law, shall become due and immediately payable, whether due by lapse of time or not, provided, however, that if notwithstanding any such law, the Mortgagors may lawfully and shall pay it or for the Mortgagor, its successors and assigns, and such tax, this mortgage shall remain the same as if such law or laws had not been passed.

The interest rate fixed in this mortgage is agreed upon as follows: That all escrow funds will bear no interest, and that said note fully protect this mortgage, the Mortgagor, together with him, in addition to the monthly installments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the note, shall, on the first day of each month until said note is fully paid, pay to the Mortgagor the following sums:

(1) A sum equal to the premiums that will next become due and payable on policies of fire and other hazard insurance covering the mortgaged property, plus taxes and assessments next due on the described premises (all as estimated by the Mortgagor), less all sums already paid therefor divided by the number of months to elapse before one month prior to the date when such premiums, taxes and assessments will become delinquent, said amounts to be held by the Mortgagor in trust to pay premiums, taxes and special assessments, as herein stated.

(2) All sums so paid, being the amounts due on the original note secured hereby and the sums stated in this paragraph, shall be applied by the Mortgagor first to taxes, assessments, fire and other hazard insurance premiums, then interest upon the note secured hereby, and the balance in amortization of the principal of said note.

If, by operation of law, interest payments should be required on these funds, it shall be optional with the Mortgagor whether the monthly collection of the estimated amounts shall continue.

If the total of payments made under the proviso of this paragraph shall exceed the amount of the payments actually made for taxes, assessments or insurance premiums, as the case may be, such excess shall be credited by the Mortgagor on subsequent payments to be made by the Mortgagor, or may be applied upon the principal of said note. If, however, said amounts are not sufficient to pay said items, the Mortgagors further agree that they will pay to the Mortgagor any amount necessary to make up such deficiency. Accordingly, if there should be a default made under the provisions of this mortgage resulting in a public sale of the premises covered thereby, or if the Mortgagor acquires the property otherwise after default at the time of the commencement of such proceedings, or at the time the property is otherwise acquired, the balance then remaining in the funds accumulated under this paragraph shall be applied as a credit against the amount of the principal then remaining due under said note.

Furthermore this mortgage also secures any advances which the Mortgagor may make to the Mortgagors, or their successors in title or interest, for any purpose, at any time before the release and cancellation hereof, but at no time shall such advances together with the balance remaining due upon the original obligation exceed the sums first secured hereby, nor shall the term of this mortgage be increased, providing, however, that nothing in this paragraph contained shall be considered as limiting the amounts that may be secured hereby when advanced to protect Mortgagor's security or in accordance with other covenants contained herein.

It is further mutually covenanted and agreed, by and between the parties hereto, for themselves, their heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, that the owner and holder of this mortgage and of the promissory note secured thereby shall have the right, without notice, to grant to any person liable for said mortgage indebtedness, any extension of time for payment of all or any part thereof, without in any way affecting the personal liability of any party obligated to pay such indebtedness.

IT IS FURTHER EXPRESSLY AGREED: That should the said Mortgagor fail to make payment of any taxes or other charges payable by them as hereinbefore agreed, or suffer said premises to become subject to any lien or encumbrance thereof and the amount so paid, with interest therein at the rate of ELEVEN AND ONE QUARTER PER CENT, per annum shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this mortgage, without waiver, however, of any rights of said Mortgagor arising from the breach of any of said covenants. The Mortgagor may collect a monthly late charge not to exceed two cents (2c) for each one dollar ($1.00) of each payment more than ~~100~~ (40) days in arrears to cover the extra expense involved in handling delinquent payments; without prejudice, however, to the Mortgagor's right to consider each such delinquency as a breach of covenant by the Mortgagor.

In the event the security is sold either by deed or contract of sale or otherwise conveyed to any person or party, and this mortgage debt remain unpaid at time of sale, then at the option of the Mortgagor, after written notice by United States Mail to the Mortgagor, the rate of interest upon the indebtedness secured hereby shall, from and after the date of exercise of the option, be increased to the extent of two percent or such lesser sum as the Mortgagor shall elect; provided said option shall never be used to establish an interest rate in excess of the maximum allowed by law and if this mortgage is assumed, Mortgagor's assumption fee or insurance transfer charge shall be paid by assuming party.

While not in default, the Mortgagors may collect and enjoy the rents, issues and profits pledged hereby, but in case of default in any payment, or any default under provisions undertaken by the Mortgagors hereby, the Mortgagor shall have the right to collect such rents, issues and profits and to expend such portion thereof as may be necessary for the maintenance and operation of said property and apply the balance, less reasonable costs of collection, upon the indebtedness hereby secured until all delinquent payments shall have been fully discharged.

In the event suit is instituted to effect such foreclosure, the said Mortgagor, its successors or assigns, may recover therein as Attorney's fees such sum as the Court may adjudge reasonable and shall pay such reasonable cost of searching records and abstracting the same as necessarily may be incurred in foreclosing this mortgage or defending the same which sums may be included in the decree of foreclosure. Upon sale in any form, the proceedings the entire tract shall be sold as one parcel and the purchaser at any such sale shall be let into immediate and full possession of the above premises.

That in the event suit is instituted to effect such foreclosure, the said Mortgagor, its successors or assigns, shall as a matter of right and without regard to the sufficiency of the security or of waste or danger of misapplication of any of the properties of the Mortgagors, be entitled forthwith to have a receiver appointed of all the property hereby mortgaged and the Mortgagors hereby expressly consent to the appointment of a receiver by any court of competent jurisdiction and expressly stipulate, covenant and agree that such receiver may remain in possession and control of the mortgaged property until a final determination of such suit or proceeding.

Wherever the term "Mortgagor" occurs herein it shall mean "mortgor" when only one person executes this document, and the liability hereunder shall be joint and several. O'Rourke Construction, A Washington Corporation
