3. The purchaser agrees that full inspection of said real estate has been made and that neither the seller nor his agents shall be held to any covenant respecting the condition of any improvements theron nor shall the purchaser or seller or either of either be held to any covenant for agreement for alterations, improvements or repairs unless the covenant or agreement contained in or contained herein or in writing and attached to and made a part of this contract.

4. The purchaser avishes all hazards of damage to or destruction of any improvements now on said real estate or hazards of damage, and of the taking of said real estate of any kind thereof for public use, and agrees that no such damage, destruction or taking shall constitute a lesion of consideration to cause the part of said real estate taken for public use, the portion of the compensation award remaining after payment of reasonable expenses of securing the same shall be paid to the seller and applied as payment on the purchase price balance unless the seller agrees to allow the purchaser to apply all or a portion of such compensation award to the rebuilding or restoration of any improvements so damaged by such taking. In case of damage or destruction, if a claim is filed against the purchaser of such insurance remaining after payment of the reasonable expense of preserving the same, it shall be diverted to the restoration or rebuilding of such improvement(s) within a reasonable time unless otherwise specifically said and proceeds shall be paid to the seller for application on the purchase price balance.

5. The seller has delivered or agrees to deliver within 15 days of the date of closing a purchaser's policy of title insurance in standard form, or a commitment thereto, issued by SAFECO Title Insurance Company, insuring the purchaser to the full amount of said purchase price against loss or damage by reason of defect in seller's title to said real estate as of the date of closing and containing no exceptions other than the following:

a. Printed general exceptions appearing in said policy form.
b. Liens or encumbrances which by the terms of this contract the purchaser is to assume, or as to which the conveyance is being made subject, and

c. Any existing contract or contracts under which seller is purchasing said real estate, and any mortgage or other obligation, which seller by this contract agrees to pay, none of which for the purpose of this paragraph (c) shall be deemed defects in seller's title.

(c) If seller's title to said real estate is subject to an existing contract or contracts under which seller is to pay, said real estate, or any mortgage, deed of trust or other obligation which seller is to pay, seller agrees to make such payment in accordance with the terms thereof, and upon default, the purchaser shall have the right to make any payments necessary to move the default, and any payment so made shall be applied to the payments next falling due as the same under this contract.

(d) The seller agrees, upon receiving full payment of the purchase price and interest in the manner above specified, to execute and deliver to purchaser a statutory warranty deed to said real estate, excepting any easements hereafter taken for public use, free of encumbrances except only that may attach after date of closing through any person other than the seller, and subject to the following:

The purchaser covenants to keep the buildings and other improvements on said real estate in good repair and not to permit waste and not to use or permit the use of the real estate for any illegal purpose. The purchaser covenants to pay all service, installation or construction charges for water, sewer, electricity, garbage or other utility services furnished in said real estate after the date purchaser is entitled to possession.

(9) In case the purchaser fails to make any payment herein provided or to maintain insurance, as herein required, the seller may make such payment or effect such insurance, and any amounts so paid by the seller, together with interest at the rate of 10% per annum thereon from date of payment until repaid, shall be repayable by purchaser on seller's demand, all without prejudice to any other right the seller might have by reason of such defaults.

(10) Time is of the essence of this contract, and if it is agreed that in case the purchaser shall fail to comply with or perform any condition or agreement herein or to make any payment required hereunder promptly at the time and in the manner herein required, the seller may elect to declare all the purchaser's rights hereunder terminated, and upon his doing so, all payments made by the purchaser hereunder and all improvements placed upon the real estate shall be forfeited to the seller as liquidated damages, and the seller shall have right to re-enter and take possession of the real estate, and no waiver by the seller of any default on the part of the purchaser shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default.

Service upon purchaser of all demands, notices, or other papers with respect to forfeiture and termination of purchaser's rights may be made by United States Mail, postage pre-paid, return receipt requested, directed to the purchaser at his address last known to the seller.

(11) Upon seller's election to bring suit to enforce any covenant of this contract including but not to collect any payment required hereunder, the purchaser agrees to pay a reasonable sum as attorney's fees and all costs and expenses in connection with such suit, which sum shall be included in any judgment or decree entered in such suit.

If the seller shall bring suit to procure an adjudication of the termination of the purchaser's rights hereunder, and judgment is so entered, the purchaser agrees to pay a reasonable sum of attorney's fees and all costs and expenses in connection with such suit, and also the reasonable cost of searching records to determine the condition of title at the date such suit is commenced, which sum shall be included in any judgment or decree entered in such suit.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this instrument as of the date first written above.
