

November 20, 1979

The undersigned purchasers, represent that they are the purchaser of a forty (40) acre tract of land, described on the attached Schedule "A". They, further represent that they are each purchasing an undivided one-half interest in said land. They, further represent that both of them desire to build a house on the said property and that in order to obtain financing, it is necessary for them to each own one, 2 acre tract, free from the contract sellers interest. The purchasers, further state that they will not convey said lots to a third party without first platting said property according to law.
