

4. Optional Revocation by One Party. If either party becomes disabled, the other party shall have the power to terminate the provisions of paragraph 1 regarding after acquired property and the provisions of paragraph 2 and each party designates the other as attorney-in-fact to become effective upon disability to exercise such power. The termination shall become effective upon the delivery of written notice thereof to the disabled spouse and to the guardians, if any, of the person and of the estate of the disabled person. For the purposes of this paragraph, a spouse shall be deemed disabled if a person duly licensed to practice medicine in the State of Washington signs a statement declaring that the named person is unable to manage his or her own affairs.

5. Powers of Appointment. This agreement shall not affect any power of appointment that is now held or is hereafter given to Husband or Wife or both of them, nor shall it obligate Husband or Wife or both of them to exercise any such power of appointment in any way.

6. Revocation of Inconsistent Agreements. To the extent this Agreement is inconsistent with the provisions of any community property agreement or other arrangement previously made by the parties affecting the described community property, the terms of this Agreement shall be deemed to revoke such prior provisions to the extent of the inconsistency.
