Or the Seller may elect to bring an action, or actions, on any intermediate overdue installment, or on any payment or payments made by the Seller and repayable by the Purchaser, it being stipulated that the covenant to pay intermediate installments or to repay items repayable by the Purchaser, are independent of the covenant to make a deed and that every action is an action arising on contract for the recovery of money only, as if the promise to pay had been expressed in a different instrument, and that no such action shall constitute an election not to proceed otherwise as to any subsequent default, and no waiver by the Seller of any default on the part of the Purchaser shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default.

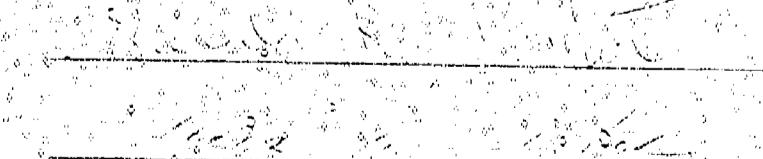

In the event of the taking of any part of the property for public use, or of the destruction of any of the improvements on the property by fire or other casualty, all of the monies received by the Seller by reason thereof shall be applied as a payment on account of the purchase price of the property, less any sum which the Seller may be required to expend in procuring such money or, at the election of the Seller, to the rebuilding or restoration of the premises.

The payments called for herein are to be made at the Columbia Gorge Bank, Stevenson, Washington 98648.

In addition to any other remedy provided herein, in the event of default of the Purchaser the Seller may declare the entire unpaid balance of the purchase price due and owing.
