

LIEN FOR STUMPAGE.

COLLINS LUMBER MILL CO.,
a corporation, Claimant,

-vs-

HARRY CONNIFF and L.G. WESTFALL, partners doing business under the name and style of GREEN TREE LUMBER CO.

Notice is hereby given that Collins Lumber Mill Co., a corporation, duly incorporated, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Oregon, with its principal office and place of business in the City of Portland, Oregon, claims a lien upon all of the spars, logs, piles, timber and lumber, which were cut or manufactured in or on Sections 29, 30, 31 and 32, Township 3 North, Range 9 East of the Willamette Meridian, in Skamania County, State of Washington, and which are now lying and situate in, on and about said Sections 29, 30, 31 and 32, as aforesaid and in and about the mill of Harry Conniff and L.G. Westfall, located on the North Bank Railroad in Skamania County, Washington, about one and one-half miles east of Collins, said mill being commonly known and designated as the Green Tree Lumber Co. Mill and also known and designated as the Collins Lumber Mill Co. Mill. That claimant claims said lien for stumpage for and on account of a certain contract heretofore entered into between claimant and said Conniff and Westfall, by the terms of which said Conniff and Westfall entered onto and upon the said lands of the claimant in Skamania County, Washington, the same being the lands hereinabove, in this claim of lien, more particularly set forth and described, to cut and for the purpose of cutting logs, spars, piles, lumber and other timber thereon, and for which privilege said Conniff and Westfall agreed to pay the sum of One Dollar and Fifty Cents ($1.50) for each and every thousand feet of logs, spars, piles, lumber or other timber cut thereon; that said contract has been fully and faithfully performed and complied with on the part of said claimant; that in pursuance of said contract said Conniff and Westfall entered upon and onto the said lands of claimant in Skamania County, Washington, and cut thereon 150,000 feet of logs, spars, piles, lumber and other timber between the 20th day of March, 1913 and the 3rd day of May, 1913; that the agreed and reasonable value of the privilege of entering onto said lands and cutting said logs, spars, piles, lumber and other timber thereon was and is the sum of Two Hundred Twenty Five ($225.00) Dollars; that no part thereof has been paid and the whole thereof is now due and owing to claimant; that there are no just credits or offsets, and that claimant claims a lien for stumpage upon all said logs, spars, piles, lumber and other timber in the said sum of $225.00. That said Conniff and Westfall are the owners or reputed owners of said logs, spars, piles, lumber and timber upon which the claimant claims a lien for stumpage, and that the claimant is the owner of said land upon which and from which the said logs, spars, piles, lumber and timber were cut and are now situate.

Dated May 10th, 1913.
