

Proof of Labor

State of Washington } s.
County Clarke }

Before me the subscriber personally appeared H. C. Benson Agent who, being duly sworn, says that at least ($200) Three hundred Dollars worth of labor or improvements were performed or made upon the "Blue Jacket" and "Footsteps" quartz lodes (they being contiguous) and the "Grey Eagle" lode in the same group and adjoining said claims on the North East; said expenditure and labor being for the development of all three claims jointly, said claims being recorded at Stevenson County seat of Stannan County, being recorded in Book "B" Miscellaneous, the latter claim in Book "C" Miscellaneous, situated in Old Mountain Mining District, Stannan County State of Washington during the year ending Dec 31st 1897.

Such expenditure was made by or at the expense of S. O. White, Douglas Coplin, C. M. Cox and H. C. Benson owners of said claims for the purpose of holding said claims. Said work consisted of thirty feet of tunnel on the "Blue Jacket" twenty feet of facing rock cut on "Footsteps" and twenty days labor on trail and cabin, all for benefit of entire group.
