

Ethel Ridley
vs.

FIR LUMBER MANUFACTURING COMPANY to Cascades, Washington.

NOTICE OF LIEN.

Notice is hereby given that I, Ethel Ridley, of Stevenson, Washington, claim a lien upon the lumber, logs and plant, said lumber being about 500,000 feet board measure in quantity, which were cut and manufactured in Skamania County, State of Washington, and are now lying in or stacked upon the yards of the Fir Lumber Manufacturing Company at its plant at Cascade, Washington, for labor performed upon and assistance rendered in the cutting of the timber and manufacture of said lumber.

That the name of the owner or reputed owner is the Fir Lumber Manufacturing Company, and said corporation, if the same is a corporation, is claimed to be owned or controlled by one Kavalage of Portland, Oregon, and two men by the name of Eccles of Baker City, Oregon, and divers other parties whose names are unknown to claimant.

That said reputed Fir Lumber Manufacturing Company or those doing business under that name, employed the said Ethel Ridley in the capacity of cook, at a salary of $125.00 per month, and that the said Ethel Ridley performed and rendered such services to said company in the capacity as cook during the months of July and August, 1918, and that said service ceased on the 8th day of August, 1918, and that there is now due and remaining unpaid thereon for said services as cook, after deducting all just credits and off-sets, for the months of July and August, the sum of $55.00.

That thirty days have not elapsed since the claimant quit the employment of said Company, and that the said Ethel Ridley now claims a lien on all of said lumber, logs, machinery and equipment of said Fir Lumber Manufacturing Company now owned by said Company in said Skamania County, State of Washington, to secure payment for the said work performed in the manner above stated, and that said claimant has made a demand upon said Company and its duly authorized agent for the payment of said claim long prior to this date.

Mrs. Ethel Ridley,
CLAIMANT

STATE OF WASHINGTON }
County of Skamania } ss.

I, Ethel Ridley, being first duly sworn on oath, say that I am the claimant in the foregoing claim. That I have heard the same read and know the contents thereof, and believe the same to be true.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this. day of August, 1918.
