

The United States of America, Patent
To whom these presents shall come Greeting:

Whereas, There has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a Certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Vancouver, Washington Territory, whereby it appears that pursuant to the Act of Congress approved 20th of May, 1862, "To secure Homesteads to actual settlers on the Public Domain", and the Acts supplemental thereto, the claim of John G. Fleming has been established and duly consummated, in conformity to law, for the North half of the North East quarter, and the East half of the North West quarter of Section six, in Township one North of Range five East of Willamette Meridian in Washington Territory, containing one hundred and sixty-one acres, according to the official Plat of the survey of said land, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General:

Now Know Ye, That there is therefore granted by the United States unto the said John G. Fleming the tract of Land above described: To have and to hold the said the said tract of Land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said John G. Fleming, and to his heirs and assigns forever; subject to any vested and accrued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing, or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection with such water rights, as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local Customs, laws, and decisions of Courts, and also subject to the right of the Proprietor of a vein or lode to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or intersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by Law.

In testimony whereof I, Benjamin Harrison President of the United States of America, have caused these letters made Patent and the Seal of the Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, the sixteenth day of July in the year of our Lord 1890, and of the Independence of the U.S. the 115th

By the President: Benjamin Harrison, by M. M. Bean, Secy,
 J. M. Townsend Recorder of the General Land Office.

Recorded Nov. 22, 1890. J. O. Waltemann, Auditor
