

Dollars bearing even date herewith and payable at The Security Bank of Tacoma on the 19th day of March 1890 with interest thereon at the rate of 12 per cent per annum payable as provided by the said note and the coupons attached. Said first party shall neither Commit nor permit waste on said premises shall pay taxes thereon and all local assessments levied against said second party or the owner of said note on account of said indebtedness before the delinquency and shall keep fully insured the buildings thereon for the benefit of the second party as additional security hereto. Said second party or the owner of said note may pay taxes redeem said premises from that sale or procure said insurance on failure of first party to do so and all moneys so advanced with interest at 12 per cent shall be repaid by said first party and be secured by this indenture. It is further agreed, that time shall be material and the essence of this contract; that if default be made in the payment of said note or of any interest coupon or any part thereof when due; in procuring insurance paying taxes in keeping and performing all covenants herein contained in said note and all of said interest coupons except interest for unexpired time shall at the option of the owner thereof become at once due and collectable without further notice and suit may be commenced at once in foreclosure of this indenture and if suit be commenced a reasonable attorney fee equal to 15 per cent of the amount due shall be included in the judgment and decree of foreclosure and be secured by this Indenture and said attorney's fee shall be paid by said first party if suit be settled.