

Territory, containing one hundred and sixty acres, according to the Plat of the Survey of the said Lands, returned to the General Land Office, by the Surveyor General, which said Tract has been purchased by the said William F. Lamson.

Know Now Ye, That the United States of America, in consideration of the premises and in conformity with the several Acts of Congress in such case made and provided, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant unto the said William F. Lamson and to his heirs, the said Tract above described: To have and to hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities and appurtenances, of whatever nature thereunto belonging, unto the said William F. Lamson and to his heirs and assigns forever: subject to any vested and accrued water rights for mining, agricultural manufacturing, or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs, used in connection with such water rights, as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws, and decisions of Courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or intersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law.

In testimony whereof, I, Benjamin Harrison President of the United States have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the 25th day of February A.D. 1891 and of the Independence of the United States the 115th.

By the President: Benjamin Harrison

By M. M. McKean Secretary

J. M. Townsend, Recorder of the Gen. Land Office.
