

Water Right on Washougal River.

Notice of Water Right

State of Washington } ss
County of Skamania }

The undersigned, a citizen of the United States, hereby gives notice as follows, to wit:

First: That he claims (and appropriates) the water lying, being and flowing in Chimney Rock Creek, a creek flowing westerly into the East Fork of the North Fork of the Washougal River to the extent of one hundred cubic feet per second of time. Said Chimney Rock Creek being the first creek North of the Skamania Lode.

Second: That said water is appropriated for mining, milling, power and domestic purposes, and the place of its intended use is at either or all of the following named mining claims and mill sites, to-wit: the "Bon" and "Cre" claims on the Chimney Rock Lode, the "Spruce" and "Granite" claims on the Skamania Lode, and other mining claims, and the Lost Chance mill site all being situated and located in Township three (3) North of Range Five (5) East of the Willamette Meridian in the Bald Mountain Mining District, in the county of Skamania, State of Washington.

Third: The means by which it is intended to divert said water from the natural channel of said stream is by ditches, ditches, flume, flumes or pipes (or by ditches, flumes and pipes) beginning at a point where this notice is posted, on the bank or side of said stream at the main Falls of said stream, said water to be conveyed in the manner aforesaid from said point where this notice is posted in the nearest and most practicable way or route or ways and routes to said intended place and places of use.

Located (and this notice is posted) the 21st day of September 1897
